ARE ORDERED TO DISPERSE

Zemstvo Congress Meets Only to Be Prohibited by the Czar.

NAMES ARE TAKEN

Sitting Is Then Resumed and M. Bouligin's Plan Is Denounced as Inadequate.

CREATES CLASS DISTINCTION

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

MOSCOW, July 19.—The zemstvo congress opened at midday today in the residence of Prince Dolgorukoff. The congress was attended by 225 delegates. Count Heyden, leader of the deputation representing the congress recently received by the emperor, presided.

M. Golovine, president of the organizing committee, had barely started a statement dealing with the obstacles placed in the way of the congress, announcing that Gov. Kozloff had promised there would be no recourse to extreme measures, when the chief of police, with numerous commissaries and officials, entered the room. The chief announced that the prefect had prohibited the meeting of the congress and ordered the seizure of the documents.

Count Heyden protested against the proceedings, but the chief of police began taking the names of the delegates. Then came cries of "Write down the whole of Russia." Many persons present who were not delegates to the congress requested that their names also be taken.

The police then departed in order to draw up summonses and the sitting was resumed. The scheme of a national assembly on the basis outlined by the commission presided over by M. Bouligin, minister of the interior, was minutely and critically discussed and denounced as totally inadequate to remove Russia's internal grievances, because, including a property qualification and an electoral system by classes, it prevented the assembly from truly interpreting the will of the nation, while the exclusion of numerous categories of citizens from the franchise was a contradiction of the principles of equity and a reasonable state policy.

At the same time it was recognized that the proposed assembly would comprise a considerable portion of the social forces of the empire and serve as the center of a social movement which would tend to secure political liberty and regular national representation. Therefore, it was considered desirable that, in the event of the carrying out of the Bouligin or a similar project, the delegates of the zemstovs and municipalities should participate in the assembly to the greatest possible extent, with the object of forming a compact group and to obtain a guarantee of individual and public liberties.

Numerous resolutions embodying the foregoing criticisms were adopted unanimously, as were also resolutions complaining of excessive administrative and political control of elections and insisting that publicity be given to the proceedings of the proposed assembly, which should be in direct relations with the emperor without interference from the council of the empire.

VICE GOVERNOR OF FINLAND IS MARKED

He Is Injured, but Not Fatally, by Bomb Hurled at Him. His Assailant Escapes.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

HELSINGFORS, FINLAND, July 19.—Late this afternoon, two hours after Karl Leonard Hohenthal had been sentenced to imprisonment for life at hard labor for the assassination of Procurator General Soininen last February 6, an attempt was made to assassinate Vice Governor Deutrich, as he was leaving the senate.

The vice governor had walked across the square when suddenly, as he neared the police master's office, a man on the curb threw a bomb from a distance of 50 paces. The bomb fell short, but the vice governor was blown off his feet by the terrific explosion, which shattered the windows in the neighborhood for hundreds of yards.

Vice Governor Deutrich was hastily assisted to the police station. He was burned and otherwise injured about the legs and bled profusely, but his wounds are declared not to be fatal.

The bomb thrower was pursued by naval cadets, but escaped.

GIRL WINS FREEDOM BY SAYING PRAYERS IN PRISON

When Burgess W. Shaler Ross of Homestead heard that Susie Brown, giving her home as McKees Rocks, had knelt in her cell at the Homestead police station and said her prayers he immediately discharged her at a hearing yesterday morning. Miss Brown was arrested the night before by Officer John Shinton, when he found her sleeping on a doorstep. She was put in a cell and early in the morning when Sergeant Thomas Cush went into the corridor he discovered her kneeling in her cell. In discharging the girl Burgess Ross gave her some good advice about staying out late at night.

RAILROAD RATE WAR IS BEGUN

Panhandle Cuts First-Class Fare from Chicago to New York Down to $16.

WILL INVOLVE ALL ROADS

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, July 19.—The Pennsylvania company announced today that on July 24 it would put into effect over the Panhandle line a rate of $16 first-class and $15 second-class from Chicago to New York. The Baltimore & Ohio undoubtedly will follow the example of the Pennsylvania, the result being that every railroad east of Chicago and St. Louis will be involved in the rate war growing out of the adoption of differential rates by the Michigan Central road.

As all the other differential lines now have or will have next Monday a rate to New York $2 less than the $18 rate of the Michigan Central, that road has practically gained nothing by the award of a board of arbitrators of differential rates to it. It will not abandon the differential for which it made such a hard fight and must therefore make another reduction of $2 in its rates to New York, and corresponding reductions to other eastern points.

The Grand Trunk and Erie roads declare that if the Michigan Central meets their $16 rate of the first-class to New York, they will immediately reduce the rate to $14. All the other differential lines will be forced to do so, because the Western Passenger Association lines have agreed to sell through tickets to the east at the lowest rate tendered them by any eastern line.

From present indications, the first-class passenger rate from here to New York will be down to $10 within two weeks and, under the law, that will be the maximum rate to any intermediate point.

Some passenger officials predict that this war will end the abolition of differential rates to roads and the adoption of new rates in the basis of common time, common fare, all roads charging the same rates on trains running in the same time between here and New York.

SPECULATORS ARE BUSY.

Berlin Boerse Mystified by Sensational Jump of German Mining Securities.

BERLIN, July 19.—Sensational speculation is going on on the Berlin boerse in the shares of the Deutsch Luxenburgische Mining Company, which today recorded a jump of 20 per cent, making a total rise of 53 per cent since June 30. The boerse is much puzzled over the meaning of this speculation, which recalls many features of the great struggle over the Hibernia coal mines last summer between the banks and the Prussian treasury department to secure control of the mines.

EFFORT TO ASSASSINATE HEAD OF HOLY SYNOD

M. POBIEDONOSTSEFF.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—A circumstantial report of an attempt on the life of Constantine Petrievitch Pobiedonostseff, chief procurator of the Holy Synod, is current in St. Petersburg tonight, but the authorities, and even the police at the Tsarskoe Selo railway station, where the attempt is reported to have been made, disclaim all knowledge of any such happening.

According to the report, as M. Pobiedonostseff stepped from one of the coaches on the train from Tsarskoe Selo, where he is residing during the summer, to the platform, a man about 28 years of age rushed up with a revolver in his hand, but he was seized by a quick-witted passenger before he could shoot and was turned over to the police.

JOHN PAUL JONES IS TO HAVE GRAND MAUSOLEUM

General Porter Describes Scene at Cherbourg When Two Great Navies Assembled.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 19.—"Just enjoying the breezes on Sagamore Hill with the president," said Gen. Horace F. Porter, as he left Oyster Bay today.

The former ambassador to France discussed the arrival of Paul Jones' body and its ultimate resting place with the president. Whether New York politics were touched upon Gen. Porter would not say. Of Paul Jones' resting place, Gen. Porter said:

"The admiral's body will probably lie in the crypt of the new chapel at Annapolis. Thus Paul Jones will have a mausoleum as impressive and appropriate as the mausoleum of Gen. Grant. The ceremonies in France were impressive. The French people were deeply moved and sincere in their tributes. The whole plan of reception was admirable. They know how to do things over there. The appearance of our white fleet outlined against the great black battleships assembled at Cherbourg was a scene to live in the memory."

NEGRO GAMBLERS RUN OUT OF NATIONAL GUARD CAMP

Wylie Avenue Contingent Caught Rolling "Crooked Bones" at Erie and Threatened With Lynching.

Special Telegram From
JOHN P. COWAN, Staff Correspondent.

CAMP JONES, ERIE, PA., July 19.—A lynching was narrowly averted in Camp Jones this afternoon. Negro crap-shooters with loaded dice have been playing havoc on soldiers' purses, and today it was discovered that the gamblers were cheating. The Second brigade boys resented, and the fortunate intervention of the guard of the Sixteenth regiment saved the negroes from suffering summary punishment.

As soon as the Second brigade installed itself in Camp Jones, William Jackson and Samuel Brown, negro dice-shooters of the Wylie avenue district, Pittsburgh, arrived in Erie and established themselves on the shore of the lake at a point opposite the camp, where the soldiers go bathing. Brown and Jackson made big money. Yesterday they "raked in" $43 from two members of the Eighteenth, and after the boys had "gone broke" the negroes insisted on collecting a small amount which was alleged to be due on the game. The Eighteenth men objected and the gamblers pressed their plea for the money. Then something happened.

There was a strenuous mixup on the sand and after two or three minutes Jackson and Brown, bleeding from blows they had received, rushed wildly toward camp, pursued by a crowd of infuriated men from all regiments. "Hang them," shouted the soldiers. The negroes were more fleet of foot and ran breathlessly toward camp. The guardhouse of the Sixteenth was the first tent in sight, and toward it Jackson and Brown made a rapid pace. "Help! protection! save our lives, captain!" shouted the negroes as they plunged exhausted into the tent. They were arrested and turned over to the officers of the Eighteenth. Tonight they were placed in the city police station.

Not a few gamblers are here bent on winning the money of the guardsmen, and the officers do not criticise the action of the men. Other crap-shooters, profiting by the experience, are leaving the town.

BIGELOW SHIFTS HIS POSITION

Says Sentiment Is Crystalizing for 18-Foot Cut, and That Is What He Favors.

HOPES FOR NEWS FROM FRICK

Chaos reigns in hump matters just now. Director Bigelow yesterday figuratively threw all his hump plans into the fire, abandoning his idea of a 15-foot cut and reverting to one of 18 feet. The director said, however, that the people would not vote on the question of issuing the hump bonds until the city councils had passed an ordinance distinctly specifying the new grades.

For public consumption Director Bigelow says he has reverted to the 15-foot cut idea because of the criticism of the 15-foot cut at the chamber of commerce meeting on Tuesday, although but one man there vigorously advocated the 15-foot cut. The county commissioners would not sign a waiver of damages for a 15-foot cut, and as the 15-foot cut will go below the base line of the building, they will be more opposed to the hump cut than they were. It was H. C. Frick's objections to the 18-foot cut that caused Director Bigelow to change his plans. Now he has gone back to his first idea, while Mr. Frick has not changed his mind.

Says Sentiment Favors 18 Feet.

All but two of the important damage waivers Mr. Bigelow has secured are on a 15-foot cut basis. He says he can secure a few waivers hitherto withheld, if the cut is made 18 feet, but it is predicted that many of the waivers he has secured will be withdrawn if an ordinance is passed making the cut 18 feet deep.

"The sentiment seems to be crystallizing for an 18-foot cut or nothing," said Director Bigelow yesterday. "It is my personal opinion that if the bond issue is submitted to the people on the basis of a 15-foot cut it will be defeated. The uncertainty could be ended by having councils pass an ordinance, fixing the new grades. Such an ordinance can be passed in advance of the day of the election on the hump bond issue."

It is therefore seen that Director Bigelow has not given up the idea of holding a bond election, despite the condition in which his hump project is now. The bond election is to be held on August 22, 33 days from now. It is believed that it will be uphill work for Bigelow to get the grade ordinance passed, secure waivers on the new 18-foot cut basis, and "educate" the people sufficiently to secure a favorable vote on the bond issue.

Busy Defending His Position.

It is suggested that the director does not really expect a favorable vote, but that after the election he is prepared to declare that the change in plans confused the people and that if another election is held next year the people will vote in favor of the hump cut. It is generally admitted that if the director can obtain a hump bond election every year the people may become so tired of the matter that in six or seven years the opponents of the scheme to saddle the cost of the hump reduction on the taxpayers may not come out to vote.

The director is kept busy defending his position. Yesterday he admitted that with the 18-foot cut the top of the Pennsylvania railroad tunnel would be only 18 inches or two feet below the street surface, and he declared that was sufficient space in which to lay a street pavement and foundations. Some engineers are of the opinion that the vibration caused by heavy traffic over a tunnel separated by only 18 inches or two feet would tend to injure the roof of the tunnel.

Although it has been declared that $2,000,000 would not be sufficient to meet the cost of reducing the hump even 15 feet, Director Bigelow maintains that that amount will pay for an 18-foot cut, although the area to be graded will be much enlarged.

What the Grades Would Be.

The following, according to Director Bigelow, shows the grades of a number of important streets in the hump district, the grades they would have with an 18-foot cut, and those that would exist with a 15-foot cut:

Fifth avenue, Smithfield to Grant street; present grade, 7.3 per cent; 15-foot cut, 5.8; 18-foot cut, 4.8.

Diamond street, Smithfield to Grant street; present grade, 7.8; 15-foot cut, 4.4; 18-foot cut, 4.1.

Oliver avenue, Smithfield to Grant street;

STORM BREAKS TORRID SPELL

Wind and Rain Cause a Drop of 20 Degrees in One Hour.

VICTIM LIST GROWS

Deaths and Prostrations Are Recorded in the Three Cities and the Suburbs.

RAINFALL IS .65 OF AN INCH

Relief from the torrid weather under which Pittsburgh and the surrounding country had been suffering for two days came suddenly and decidedly yesterday afternoon, with the rain and windstorm that broke at 1 o'clock and caused the thermometer to drop 20 degrees within an hour. While the temperature during the early hours of the day was not as high as during the same hours on Tuesday, the humidity was greater and before relief came a long list of victims succumbed.

With but two exceptions, the rainfall here was greater than at any other point in the country, though rain was plentiful in nearly all sections. A precipitation of .65 of an inch was registered at the local weather bureau, most of which fell between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. During this storm the First Presbyterian church of Shaeaden, in Chartiers street, was struck by lightning and demolished. The fire department was called out, but its services was not required as the wreckage did not catch fire.

Owing to the humidity little work was done in the mills during the morning and while the weather prognosticators declare that this district is not yet free from the hot wave, they agree that the backbone of the wave has been broken, and promise more rain.

The Record by Hours.

The temperature yesterday, beginning at midnight Tuesday, as recorded by the local bureau, is as follows:

12 midnight	76	11 a. m.	87
1 a. m.	77	12 noon	87
2 a. m.	76	1 p. m.	87
3 a. m.	76	2 p. m.	87
4 a. m.	76	3 p. m.	87
5 a. m.	75	4 p. m.	87
6 a. m.	74	5 p. m.	87
7 a. m.	75	6 p. m.	79
8 a. m.	77	7 p. m.	72
9 a. m.	80	8 p. m.	70
10 a. m.	82	9 p. m.	68

The suffering in the tenement districts and the workshops was fully as acute before yesterday's storm as during the preceding day, for while the skies were clouded and the glare of the sun not so continued, the humidity was greater. Many of the deaths occurring yesterday were due to the prostrations of the day before.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., July 19.—The Hartford Fire Insurance Company will pay the state of Arkansas $56,400 penalties for operating in violation of the anti-trust law. STORM CAUSES GREAT DAMAGE

Torrid Wave Broken by Destructive Elements in Nearby Towns.

FOUR ARE KILLED

Many Houses Are Struck by Lightning and Crops Are Devastated.

FARM PROPERTY IS FLOODED

Abruptly breaking the torrid wave, a severe electrical and wind storm accompanied by heavy rains wrought wreckage and devastation over a large area throughout Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia yesterday. Four deaths are recorded. Many of the towns in the vicinity of Pittsburgh suffered great loss. Fires caused by lightning striking public buildings and residences were numerous, while wind and flood caused destruction to growing crops in many sections of the three states, as indicated by the following messages received by The Gazette last night:

MONESSEN, PA.—One of the large warehouses of the Pittsburgh Steel Company was struck by lightning and about one-half of the building was destroyed by fire. The warehouse contained field fence and cooperage. In the city merchants suffered losses that will reach thousands of dollars from flooded cellars.

GREENSBURG, PA.—The storm center was in Ludwick. Large trees were uprooted and chimneys demolished. Dogs which had been penned up by their owners took the rabies during the hot season, and the cattle of William Conners on the Samuel Waddle farm near Bradenville, were attacked. It was necessary to shoot two young heifers and a horse. John A. Waddle had two dogs bitten, and was compelled to kill all of his swine. A wholesale slaughter of dogs in Derry township has been begun.

Church Struck by Lightning.

SHARON, PA.—The Congregational church was struck by lightning while a half-dozen houses were damaged throughout the town. Fruit trees and crops were ruined in many parts of the county. At Mercer four houses were struck by lightning.

CANONSBURG, PA.—Several houses were struck by lightning, the residence of Charles DeWolf being set on fire. The streets were badly flooded. The residence of William Morrison was struck by lightning and damaged.

SALINEVILLE, O.—Oat fields were beaten down and much growing corn was badly damaged.

COSHOCTON, O.—A cloud burst struck Coshocton county after two hours of 100-degree temperature, doing vast damage to standing corn and mown hay. Streets were raging torrents. Lightning struck the home of Abram Miller in this city wrecking one side.

Farmer Killed by Lightning.

SOMERSET, PA.—Frank Zephoneyer was struck by lightning and instantly killed on his farm near Beede, this county, today while seeking shelter under a tree. Zephoneyer was harvesting hay when a severe storm set in.

FAIRMONT, W. VA.—The damage here by the storm is estimated at $15,000. Two deaths are reported from a remote part of the county, but on account of the crippled condition of the telephone and telegraph wires it is impossible to get the details or names of the dead. J. R. Hickman of Fairmont, while driving west here suffered the loss of his horse by a bolt of lightning. Hickman was not injured. The damage done to the standing crops is figured at $5,000.

SALEM, O.—In the vicinity of Winona, five miles east of Salem, forest trees, orchards and grain in stack and standing, were leveled to the ground. Telephone lines were badly demoralized.

WASHINGTON, PA.—The Polish Catholic cathedral at Ellsworth which would have been completed this week was blown down and almost demolished. The loss is $7,000 with no insurance. Oscar Trostlen, a Swedish carpenter, who was at work on the steeple, was blown from the structure, falling 35 feet. He was taken out of the debris only slightly injured. Lightning destroyed a large barn on the William Noble farm near Canonsville, this county.

KITTANNING, PA.—Lightning struck the house of Denny Bowser in West Kittanning, damaging it greatly. Mrs Bowser was knocked to the floor and stunned. The public school building at Worthington was struck by lightning and damaged to the extent of $50.

DANESVILLE, O.—Hazel Offerd, 14-year-old daughter of Frank Offerd, of near McConnellsville, was instantly killed by lightning while riding a horse, which was also killed. The girl's father, 10 feet away at the time, was rendered unconscious, but will recover.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING WHILE SUN IS SHINING

Though the Crystal on the Victim's Watch Is Melted, It Continues to Keep Time.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 19.—There was a remarkable electrical storm in the Greenville section of Jersey City this afternoon. Although the sun was shining brightly, thunder roared unceasingly and forked lightning flashed for 10 minutes before the rain began falling. Although the sky was clear, a bolt of lightning killed Rafael Romero, 35 years of age, one of a gang of laborers. His companions were panic-stricken.

The lightning tore Romero's trousers, ripped the shoe from his left foot and shattered the right shoe. Both feet were burned. The crystal on Romero's open-face silver watch was slightly melted and the dark blackened. The watch, however, continued to keep time.

HEAT DECREASES; DEATHS INCREASE

In New York City Alone the Roll of Victims Runs Up to 75.

RECORD IN OTHER CITIES

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 19.—While the record of deaths and prostrations greatly exceeded that of yesterday, there was a distinct diminution today in the temperature prevailing throughout the eastern section of the country. Although the midday heat was everywhere terrific, it was broken by scattered thunderstorms, many of a very violent character, and toward evening the temperature fell rapidly until normal summer conditions were reached.

In New York the highest temperature recorded was 95, one degree lower than that of yesterday. Philadelphia reported a slightly higher maximum range, and in other cities the highest point of yesterday was not touched, while everywhere a sharp fall was noticed, beginning early in the afternoon.

Following are maximum temperatures, the maximum humidity, and the deaths and prostrations from the effects of the heat:

The following table shows the deaths and prostrations in the principal cities:

Place.	Max. Temp.	Hum.	Deaths.	Prostrations.
New York	95	78	75	167
Philadelphia	97 8	48	10	40
Baltimore	92.2	77	4	5
Washington	92	96	1	14
Boston	94	62	1	25

The cumulative effect of the continued torridity of these days was painfully evident in the enormous increase of the number of deaths in New York. While the death roll of yesterday was only 26, that of today reached the appalling total of 75, being nearly half of those prostrated. This was almost entirely due to collapse of young children and aged persons, whose exhausted vitality was unequal to the strain of further suffering.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, after the long-prayed-for relief when a terrific thunderstorm and a deluge of rain burst over Brooklyn and the lower part of Manhattan and sections of New Jersey. In Brooklyn two men were struck by lightning and seriously hurt, and in Jersey City one man was killed. While the storm lasted only a few minutes and left the upper part of the city untouched, the relief was almost instantaneous, and from then on the mercury fell steadily and a cool breeze, springing up after sundown, gave assurance of a comfortable night.

An Honest Answer.

A workingman asked a successful Pittsburgh financier how he might invest his savings to best advantage.

The answer came without hesitation:

"Put it in a strong savings bank where it will earn 4 per cent."

"But how am I to know when a savings bank is safe?"

"They are all safe," replied the financier, "the laws make them so. You can determine the relative strength by comparing the capital and surplus with the deposits. The greater the capital and surplus in proportion to deposits, the stronger the bank."

The workingman made his comparison and the Peoples Savings bank, Fourth avenue and Wood street, now has his account.

It pays 4 per cent interest compounded twice a year and offers absolute security.

Deposits are accepted in any amount from $1 up either in person or by mail.

MORTON REMOVES THOMAS B. JORDAN

Controller of Equitable Refused to Give Information to the Chairman.

WESTINGHOUSE HAS A PLAN

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, July 19.

Because of his refusal to give Paul Morton, chairman of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society, certain information, the resignation of Thomas B. Jordan, the controller of the society, was demanded and given today. In his stead William A. Day, assistant attorney general of the United States, was chosen. The latter's appointment takes effect immediately.

Mr. Morton at first refused to give any reason for the practical dismissal of Mr. Jordan, but finally gave this explanation:

"Mr. Jordan was removed because he refused to give me the information I requested on important matters under investigation."

The following was given out from Mr. Morton's office tonight:

"N. N. Stranahan declines to serve as a member of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society owing to press of official duties which will make it impossible for him to give the time necessary to devote the proper attention to the work of the directors."

Expressing the belief that the present trustee management for control of the Equitable Life Assurance society may only very temporarily satisfy either the policy-holders or the public, and that a real solution of the society's difficulties has not yet been reached, George Westinghouse has suggested a new plan for stock control of the society by 5,000 policy-holders.

Mr. Westinghouse's plan is outlined in a letter to Paul Cravath, attorney, of this city, dated June 21, and made public today. The proposition outlined is that all shareholders be invited to place their shares with those of Mr. Ryan in the hands of trustees with power to vote for an amendment to the society's charter, providing that the stock shall consist of 5,000 shares of $20 each instead of 1,000 shares of $100 each; that no person except a policy-holder shall be a director; that only one share shall be held by any single person, who must be a policy-holder; that at each annual election seven policy-holders who have not previously served shall be chosen and that the trustees be directed and empowered to offer for sale at $1,000 a share the 5,000 shares contemplated by amended charter to the 5,000 largest policy-holders, and in the event of any such offer not being accepted, then to continue to offer said shares to the next largest policy-holders until the whole 5,000 shares shall have been disposed of.

Mr. Westinghouse said today he believed that under his plan the desired reforms can be promptly accomplished without legislation.

A. C. Judson, assistant bank examiner, acting under orders of F. D. Kilburn, superintendent of the state banking department, today appeared in the office of the Mercantile Trust Company and began an examination of the loans carried on the books of that institution. The loan referred to is said to be the one of $685,000 to the Equitable carried on the books of the trust company in the names of James W. Alexander and T. D. Jordan, trustees.

At any rate he thought councils would adopt it whether Mr. Frick waived damages or not.

EXHUMES REMAINS OF SECOND MRS. CARLTON

Analysis Will Be Made With View of Determining the Cause of Death.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 19.—The body of Mrs. Mary Carlton, second wife of Frederick E. Carlton, who is in jail in Brooklyn on a charge of swindling and whose helpmeets died under suspicious circumstances after he had their lives insured, was exhumed in Calvary cemetery at Long Island City today.

The casket was taken to the general receiving vault in Old Calvary, where the remains were identified by Undertaker Henry McCadden of Manhattan. An autopsy was then performed by Dr. Carroll, assisted by Dr. O'Connor, chemist of the board of health, and the viscera removed. Dr. O'Connor will make an analysis with a view to determining the exact cause of the woman's death. The body was in fair condition.

It is expected that the police of Washington will ask shortly for the exhumation of the body of Mrs. Jennie Smyth Carlton, first wife of Carlton, who died in the Capital city. Carlton will be arraigned in the county court, Brooklyn, next Friday, on the larceny indictment found against him yesterday.

FLOATING POOL ROOM IS AIDED BY FEDERAL COURT

Mayor and Police of Chicago Are Enjoined from Interfering With Its Reports by Wireless.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, July 19.—Indirectly protected by a federal court injunction, Chicago's floating poolroom, the City of Traverse, will go into commission again tomorrow and receive racing news from a wireless telegraph company, as was the practice before the Chicago police dismantled the offices of the wireless telegraph company in the Railway Exchange building some time ago.

Judge S. H. Bethea in the United States district court today issued an injunction restraining Mayor Dunne, Chief of Police O'Neill and their officers and agents from interfering with the business of the wireless telegraph company in any way. Counsel for the wireless company raised the point that the city did not have the power to interfere with interstate commerce in the form of messages sent from state to state by means of telegraph, and he was upheld by the court.

In issuing the injunction, Judge Bethea declared that, although he did not believe in gambling in any form, under the law he had no other course than to issue the restraining order. He declared the wireless company was clearly engaged in interstate commerce business, and that the federal statutes protected the corporation as it protected other telegraph companies.

DIES FROM COLLAPSE.

Once Wealthy Woman Takes Ill in Prison and Expires in the Hospital.

Elizabeth McDowell, aged 52, of 530 Third avenue, died yesterday at the Homeopathic hospital, from a general collapse. She was arrested for drunkenness Tuesday afternoon and became ill when placed in the cell. The city physicians ordered her taken to the hospital. She was formerly a wealthy woman, owning considerable property in Grant street and Wylie avenue.

George Snedden, aged 18, of Sewickley, was killed by a train at that place last night. He crossed the track behind an eastbound freight and did not see the westbound train, which run him down. He was a son of Robert Snedden.

The body of the boy found in the Ohio river at Rochester, Monday, was identified yesterday by Mrs. Schuma of Allegheny as that of her son, Andrew, aged 11, who was drowned in the Allegheny river last Saturday while swimming.

J. W. Matthew, aged 56, an oil pumper of Unity, was killed on the Plum Creek branch of the Pennsylvania railroad at Unity station yesterday.

The body of the burglar, supposed to be John Molnar, who was shot by J. H. Thomas at Natrona, on July 10, was buried in the Potters field yesterday. Although every effort was made to positively establish his identity the officers were unsuccessful.

KILLS FAMILY'S BETRAYER.

Southerner Avenges Himself Upon Man He Claimed Brought Dishonor on Him.

ROME, GA., July 19.—(Special.)—Claiming that his family had been ruined, Capt. V. T. Sanford, one of the most prominent men of this city, this morning shot and instantly killed George W. Wright, who is also a member of a prominent family. The tragedy was enacted in the heart of the city and was witnessed by hundreds of people. Sanford walked across the street and handed a policeman his gun, saying: "I want to surrender. I killed him because he ruined my family and I would do the same thing over."

The grand jury, which is in session, in a few hours indicted Sanford for murder. Recently Capt. Sanford and wife went to the Isle of Palms. Wright was also a member of the party and it is said Sanford learned something there regarding his wife and Wright which made him resolve to kill Wright. Sanford was in Augusta, Ga., last night and called up Wright by long distance telephone, saying that he would reach Rome this morning and kill him on sight.

Immediately after the shooting Sanford telegraphed his wife in Augusta, saying: "Well, I have killed him."

SENATOR DICK SATISFIED WITH POLITICS IN OHIO

Believes Temperance Question Will Be Thoroughly Understood Before Election.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 19.—"The Ohio situation is perfectly satisfactory to me," said Senator S. B. Dick this evening as he was taking a train for Akron. Senator Dick has been in the city a couple of days looking after department business and on his return to Akron was accompanied by his law partner, Col. Bryan.

"As soon as the people of Ohio fully understand the Brannock bill," continued the senator, "I will have no fear of the results. It is four months from now until election and in that time the people will have an opportunity to study the temperance question as it is presented in Ohio, and when they do I think that they will take a more friendly view of Gov. Herrick's action in this connection.

"We have now on the statutes of Ohio the best temperance law that has ever been enacted by any state. The experience of other states justifies the claim that state prohibition amounts to only local option, as it is impossible to enforce prohibition where the local sentiment is not favorable to it."

SURVIVORS MEET AGAIN AFTER THIRTY YEARS

Companions in Disaster of Steamer Missouri Find Each Other at Ocean Grove.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., July 19.—Shipwrecked 33 years ago, two of the 11 survivors of the steamship Missouri, which was burned and sunk at sea with more than 100 of her passengers and crew, met here accidentally in strange circumstances for the first time since that disaster.

One survivor is W. F. Tunnells, a banker of Georgetown, Del., the other a negro member of the Missouri's crew who came near furnishing a meal for the other 10 starving men in the steamship's open boat. It had been discussed which one should die to save the others, and several of the crew decided it should be Charles H. Glasgow, the only negro in the party. Through the pleading of Mr. Tunnells and other passengers, the negro's life was spared.

When Mr. Tunnells walked into the dining room of the United States hotel yesterday, where he has been spending his summers for several years, there was a new head waiter, an aged negro, who showed him to his seat and then lingered a moment. Gazing intently at Mr. Tunnells he said:

"I know you, you saved my life once, sir."

Mr. Tunnells looked puzzled and the negro continued: "Don't you know me, sir? I am Glasgow, who was wrecked with you on the steamship Missouri."

NEW HOME FOR AMERICUS.

Well-Known Republican Institution Will Spend Several Hundred Thousand for Projected Building.

The Americus Republican club is looking for a site for a new home. At a meeting to be held on August 6 it is expected a number of propositions will be laid before the members.

The club has outgrown its present quarters, at Penn avenue and Fifth street. The organization now has a membership of 1,400. It is the desire to build a new home, where a large gymnasium can be installed. There is not a club in the city that pays any attention to athletics. The Americus will make it one of the features, a plan which has been successfully tried in New York in a number of the political and social institutions.

The club held a meeting last night and unanimously voted power to the officials to look for sites and receive proposals for the sale of the present quarters. Some very good offers have been made for the Penn avenue property. In addition to the money received from the sale, the club expects to spend about $200,000.

Maj. Harper, secretary of the club, says the new home of the Americus will be located somewhere below Grant street. An offer has been made to sell the Boyer hotel property and several other sites have been suggested.

RETRENCHMENT LAST YEAR; MORE MEN NEEDED NOW

Something of the immense amount of tonnage being moved by the railroads in the Pittsburgh district is shown by the conditions on the Pennsylvania terminals now. "Last year there was a heavy retrenchment in all lines of employment," said General Agent H. A. Jaggard last night. "This year we have to employ more men than regularly, for the freight movement is exceedingly heavy. The year will doubtless prove a record-breaker, at least the last half of it. The Pennsylvania is better prepared than ever before for handling this tonnage, and there is no fear of a tie-up of any kind. We have gone to school and know how to do things in transportation lines now."

The Carbolic Acid Route Again.

Ulrich Stewart, of Patton street, Lower St. Clair township, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid at his home last night about 10 o'clock. He was 27 years old and married.

FUNSTON FINED IN POLICE COURT

Father of General Declares His Conviction Will Spur On Prohibitionists of Kansas.

HIS CASE TO BE APPEALED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

IOLA, KAS., July 19.—E. H. Funston, former congressman for this district and father of Gen. Frederick Funston, was today in police court found guilty of disturbing the peace and with having carried concealed weapons. He was fined $5 on each charge, and the costs of the suits were charged against him, making a total of $21.55.

The charges against Mr. Funston grew out of the wrecking of three Iola saloons with dynamite by a temperance fanatic July 10. The explosions followed an agitation against the saloons, in which Gov. Hoch was appealed to in an effort to secure the enforcement of the state prohibition law. Intense excitement followed the act of the dynamiter, and for three days the city was crowded with people who came from many points of the state to view the wreckage caused, and to join in a hunt for the dynamiter.

During the height of the excitement Mr. Funston, it was charged, had made inflammatory utterances to crowds about him on the streets. When Patrolman Cameron tried to persuade Mr. Funston to desist, a quarrel between the two ensued and Funston, it is alleged, attempted to draw a revolver.

The loss caused by the explosions was estimated at $10,000, and the alleged dynamiter, C. L. Melvin, is still at large, although a warrant has been issued for his arrest and hundreds of men have searched for him.

Mr. Funston said today:

"There is not a citizen of Kansas who believes I am guilty of disturbing the peace. We shall win out in the district court. I have received letters from all over Kansas expressing sympathy and the belief that I am innocent. The people are waking up. The dynamiting of the Iola saloons was most deplorable, but at the same time it will answer a good purpose in stirring the people of Kansas to action. It will call attention anew to the fact that these same conditions exist in most every Kansas town. The prohibition law will be enforced. The time is coming soon. We must not leave it to a few preachers and enthusiasts. The bone and sinew, the solid men of the country must take part."

PLANNING BIG PARADE.

Members of the Labor Organizations Are Working Hard to Make Demonstration a Success.

Plans are under way to make the Labor day celebration in Pittsburgh this year the biggest ever held by the labor organizations. The committees having the arrangements in charge have nearly 500 locals and organizations working with them to make the demonstration a big success. A meeting of the general committee was held last night at 912 Diamond street and the reports of the various committees were received.

It is reported the switchmen are contemplating placing a great shifting locomotive in the parade. The Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America promise to have a good feature, but they have not yet decided just what it will be. The five organizations of railroad employes are also working to make the demonstration a success, although many of them will not be able to take part; but it is expected the conductors, trainmen, firemen, switchmen and telegraphers will have representatives in the parade.

Another feature of the parade, and one which has not been seen in this city for years, will be the women's division. It was last night announced after the meeting that women unionists have declared their intention of riding in the parade.

REUNION WITH FEATURES.

The Rev. W. W. Faris, Formerly of This City, Will Meet Three Preacher Sons in St. Louis.

The reunion begun here will be continued Sunday, July 23, at the old home of the Faris in Anna, Ill. Mrs. Charles H. Wiley, a daughter of Dr. Faris, will entertain the four ministers, and they will again take part in one service at the Anna Presbyterian church, of which the Rev. John M. Faris, father of the Rev. W. W. Faris, was once pastor. Mrs. Wiley's husband is an elder in this church, and another elder is E. R. Jinnette, who married a sister of Dr. Faris.

BULL IS A LIGHT WEIGHT.

Beats Doctor Tanner in Fasting and Loses Nine Hundred Pounds Weight.

WASHINGTON, PA., July 19.—(Special.)—A remarkable instance of animal starvation under peculiar circumstances was brought to light near here today. A Holstein bull owned by F. D. Willerton of Washington county, fell through the ground into an abandoned coal mine, and for 48 days had no food, but lived on the water in a small stream in the mine.

Forty-eight days ago the bull was missed, and today Willerton helped the beast out of the mine. It weighed 1,500 pounds prior to its disappearance, and upon being weighed today it had lost 900 pounds. The animal will live, although it was terribly emaciated and exhausted when found.

PEACE ENVOY OF JAPAN ARRIVES

Steamer Minnesota Bearing Baron Komura and Party is in American Waters.

KOREA TO SEND TWO AGENTS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SEATTLE, WASH., July 19.—The steamer Minnesota with Baron Komura, Japan's plenipotentiary, on board, passed Tacoma island at 5 o'clock this afternoon and will arrive at Port Townsend about 11 o'clock and probably will remain there tonight.

SEOUL, KOREA, July 19.—Against the advice of members of the foreign legations here, Korea has decided to send two representatives to Washington to attempt to secure a hearing before the peace plenipotentiaries. Both of the men chosen were formerly students in America. They are both young, without public standing and bear no credentials. The emperor's private purse supplies them with 20,000 yen to "inaugurate a newspaper campaign to interest Americans in Korea's plight."

Japanese Minister Hayashi has protested and suggested a personal consultation before the departure of the Koreans, which, it is asserted, they have tried to avoid. The scheme is considered here by the Japanese as a useless expense and not as a serious attempt to interest the world.

HONOLULU, July 19.—Korean Representative Yoon today sailed on the steamer Alameda for the United States.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—M. Witte's departure for Paris today, while a very democratic affair, nevertheless was the occasion for a remarkable demonstration in his honor. The compartment occupied by Russia's chief plenipotentiary was filled with flowers and the platform at the station was crowded with friends who bade him farewell and good luck in the great mission before him. The whole affair was a testimonial of the strength of M. Witte's personal following. Among those present were all the prominent officials who had seen service under the former minister of finance. The secretary of the Chinese legation and the Korean minister were both in attendance. Mme. Witte accompanied her husband.

TOKYO, July 19.—It is believed Emperor Nicholas recently sent an encouraging message to Gen. Linevitch promising him men, provisions and other necessaries for attaining an ultimate victory. It is also reported that the Russian emperor recently ordered the mobilization of four army corps.

These facts, taken in connection with the reported limitation of M. Witte's powers as chief peace plenipotentiary, are deemed to be a sign that Russia is not sincere in her expressed desire for the conclusion of peace.

KANSAS GAS COMPANY GAINS REGISTRATION

Charter Board Gives It State Standing Which Overcomes Ouster Decision of the Supreme Court.

Attorney Eugene Mackey of the law firm of Lee & Mackey, which has been representing the Kansas Natural Gas Company in the fight waged against it by the state of Kansas, and which culminated in the verdict for the state in ouster proceedings, the decision in which was handed down by the supreme court last week, received word yesterday that the charter board of the state had granted the company registration. This overcomes the verdict and gives the company every right of way.

The concern, which is supported by a great deal of Pittsburgh capital, made an attempt a year ago to be registered by the Kansas charter board, being a Delaware corporation. Registration was denied and many obstacles put in the way of the company to restrain it from piping its gas from the southeast section of the state, where its holdings are so large that the company is now shutting in 1,000,000,000 feet of gas daily.

TO REVIEW GUARD FROM AUTOMOBILE

Gov. Pennypacker Will Be Furnished Fast Machine on His Arrival at Erie.

HORSE RACE IN PROSPECT

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM JOHN P. COWAN, Staff Correspondent.

CAMP JONES, ERIE, PA., July 19.—Gov. Pennypacker tomorrow will review the Second brigade from an automobile. This will be unusual, but it will be in strict accord with the governor's rule not to mount a horse. Tonight Erie is being ransacked to find an automobile suitable for the chief executive. It will be necessary to have a swift machine and one that at least will be as comfortable as a carriage. It will be the first time in American history that a commander-in-chief has reviewed his soldiers from an automobile.

The governor, with Adjt.-Gen. Thomas J. Stewart and Maj.-Gen. Charles Miller, will arrive at Erie on a special train tomorrow morning. He will be met at the station by an escort of cavalry and immediately will be escorted to camp. Battery B will fire a salute of 17 guns and the inspections of the various commands will be begun on the parade grounds, it having been found that the company streets do not provide the room as was at first planned. At noon the governor and Gens. Miller and Stewart will be the guests of Gen. Wiley. Inspections will be held in the afternoon until 5 o'clock, when the governor's review will be held. Thirty thousand visitors are expected. Good weather is promised and the brigade will doubtless make a fine showing.

Tomorrow night the governor will be entertained at headquarters by a band concert by moonlight and all the beautiful women of the brigade will be on hand to grace the occasion. Gov. Pennypacker will continue inspections on Friday and will return to Harrisburg late Friday night.

A special train arrived in Erie this afternoon bearing Col. Samuel Moody, quartermaster general; Col. Frank Patterson inspector general of rifle practice; Col. A. J. Logan, commissary general, and Col. Homer J. Lindsay of the governor's staff. Col. Moody brought along his famous horse, Sam, which has been promptly nicknamed "Transportation." It is one of the finest mounts in the brigade and rivals Capt. W. O. McNary's Kentucky horse, Belle, which is famous throughout the state guard.

A race track is handy to the campground and it would not surprise Gen. Wiley and the other officers if Col. Moody and Capt. McNary would act as their own jockeys and try it out at reveille tomorrow morning. Nevertheless, the question must be settled and a good, speedy horse race is looked for. Col. Moody started around on an inspection as soon as he arrived here and passed a nice compliment on the work which has been done by Maj. Lew Anshutz, the brigade quartermaster.

Battery B will go out to the lake tomorrow for target practice to shoot at a sail which has been erected on the water by Lieut. Purukers. The ammunition to be used was originally intended for use in killing Spaniards.

Private Emil Kaul of Knoxville, who was injured in the battery drill this morning, is resting well and it is expected that he will be out of the hospital in a short time. The young soldier has shown great pluck and has received commendation from Capt. Rees and the other officers of the battery.

Company M of Grove City has been awarded the prize banner in the competitive drill between the companies of the Sixteenth regiment. The trophy will be presented tomorrow by Gov. Pennypacker. Company C of Bradford and Company D of Oil City stood next highest in the contest. The Grove City boys have held the banner three years.

HARRISBURG, July 19.—A special car bearing Gov. Pennypacker, Adjutant Gen. Stewart and the members of the governor's military staff, left here at midnight for Erie.

BERKMAN WANTS TO KNOW HOW LONG HE MUST SERVE

Assailant of H. C. Frick Raises a Question Concerning State Commutation Law.

Alexander Berkman finished his long confinement in the Western penitentiary yesterday morning and is now in the county workhouse to serve a one-year sentence for carrying dangerous weapons. Berkman has served 12 years at Riverside for attempting to take the life of H. C. Frick during the days of the Homestead strike.

Deputy Sheriff James Haggerty arrived at the prison in a carriage at 8:30 o'clock and received from Warden Johnston the workhouse commitment. Accompanied by Deputy Haggerty and Detective T. C. Johnson, of Allegheny, Berkman was driven to the West Penn station in Federal street and was taken to Hoboken on the 10:25 a. m. train. He appeared somewhat nervous upon leaving the penitentiary and took an affectionate farewell of the guards and Warden Johnston, with whom he had associated so long.

On journey Berkman inquired anxiously concerning what would be his duties at the workhouse, but learned nothing, for the officers were as ignorant as he of the disposition to be made of him. He was put into a cell immediately upon arriving. Supt. Leslie of the workhouse will have a talk with Berkman today and assign him the duties he must perform.

Berkman is of the opinion that he will have to serve but five months of the one-year sentence, as he argues the term in th workhouse is to be a continuation of th penitentiary sentence. Under the commutation law but two months is taken from the first year. This question will be decided by Supt. Leslie.

BRUTAL MURDERER CONFESS

Sentenced to Penitentiary for Life and Implicate the Wife of Their Victim.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., July 19.—(Special.)—At Grantsville, Calhoun county, today, Lewis Hendricks and Bub McCroskey pleaded guilty to first degree murder and were sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

The crime was the murder of Henry Blackshire, a prominent Brooksville farmer and miller, on the night of May 2, when he was dragged from his bed at midnight by masked men and murdered before his wife and little son. Both McCroskey and Hendricks confessed in full their part of the crime, and charge they were employed by Mrs. Blackshire to kill her husband that she might secure his life insurance. An indictment was found against Mrs. Blackshire today, charging her also with first degree murder.

REWARD FOR MURDERER.

Senator Campbell Will Offer It for Arrest of Man Who Killed His Brother.

State Senator William Campbell of Charlestown, W. Va., will offer a reward for the apprehension of the slayer of his brother, A. C. Campbell, who was killed at McKeesport Monday night by a rock hurled through the window of a train, on which he was riding.

The senator, accompanied by John B. Frazier, general manager of the Powhattan Brass and Iron works of Charlestown, arrived in McKeesport yesterday and accompanied the remains of the murdered man home. The dead man was prominent in lodge circles, being a Mason, an Elk and a Knight of Pythias.

ASK FOR FIFTY YEAR FRANCHISE

Allegheny Select Council Returns Ordinance Involving Miles of City Streets.

NEXT MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

Allegheny select council yesterday sent back to the corporations committee ordinances granting 50-year franchises on a number of streets to the North Side & South Side Street Railway Company, the Ridge Avenue & Chartiers Street Railway Company and the Cedar Avenue Street Railway Company. The measures provide that the company postpone for 50 years the laying of tracks on the streets named, providing, however, that on 90 days' notice to the city the companies may construct the lines. Municipal authority to lay tracks on these thoroughfares must not be granted to any other company or person.

In sending the measures back to committee select council offers the recommendation that they be amended to the effect that on 90 days' notice from the city the companies shall build the lines. All these companies are subsidiary to the Pittsburgh Railways Company and the franchises they seek cover many miles of Allegheny streets. The ordinances go on final reading at the regular meeting of select in September, as an adjournment has been taken until that time.

An ordinance repealing part of an ordinance granting a franchise to the Howard Street Railway Company was passed finally.

All measures that make provision for changes in street grades and the relaying of sewers necessitated by the improvements at the Washington avenue crossing of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railroad were passed finaly.

The ordinance authorizing the mayor and the director of public works to enter into an agreement for the collection and disposal of waste paper and other litter on the streets was amended, that the advertisement of the sale of the franchise be published in the daily papers at least 15 days before the contract is let.

Resolutions to pay Morris Roach and George Bergstresser, policemen, for time lost on account of injuries while in the performance of their duties were ordered printed in an amended form. The sum of $8 per week is to be subtracted from the amounts sought because this much was paid them weekly during their absence by the Policeman's Disability association.

Among the new business introduced were measures fixing the salaries of the assistant plumbing inspector and the assistant superintendent of building inspection at $1,500 each. The following ordinances were passed finally:

Regrading and repaving Irwin avenue; naming a 30-foot street in the Thirteenth ward "Eberhardt avenue;" repealing an ordinance changing the grade of Eggars street; relocating Humboldt street; authorizing the payment of $1,263.52 to the H. J. Heinz Company for furnishing material and labor in building the addition to the Municipal hospital; amending the ordinance for the issue of $420,000 worth of bonds for the payment of contractors' claims.

CANADA TO HAVE NOTABLE EXHIBIT AT EXPOSITION

Representatives of Government Here Now Arranging for Space—When the Bands Will Come.

The interior of the Exposition and the grounds are presenting a busy scene, where a score or more of workmen have already begun the cleaning-up process, preparatory to the opening on Wednesday evening, August 20. Nearly every foot of space has been reserved, and more exhibitors who have rented space this year than ever before in the history of the Exposition.

A number of important changes will be made in the general arrangement of the exhibits this season. Chief among these will be the exhibit at the entrance to the main building, which has been given over to the Heinz company for a number of years. This space has been reserved for the Canadian government. W. A. Burns, secretary of the department of agriculture of Canada, and H. Day, chief of the department of exhibits of Canada, are in the city, looking after the details of the exhibit.

Over 15,000 yards of bunting will be used in decorating the music hall. The material used in the general decorative effects will cost more than $2,000. The exact dates for the five bandmasters' engagements have been decided upon as follows: Sousa playing a double engagement this year; Damrosch, August 30 to September 9; Sousa, September 11-16; Herbert, September, 18-23; Creatore, September 25 to October 7; Sorrentino, October 9-14; Sousa, October 16-21.

PRESIDENT KING SAYS OUTLOOK IS FAVORABLE

Head of the Jones & Laughlin Company Takes a Roseate View of the Iron and Steel Situation.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., July 19.—The Iron Trade Review, in its summary of market trade conditions this week, states that the principal development has been a marked increase in sales of pig iron, and especially in Chicago, Cleveland and Cincinnati, in each of which cities more than 50,000 tons of pig iron were sold.

The blast furnace statistics of the Review show that during June iron was manufactured at a rate which indicates a production of nearly 22,000,000 tons for the year. Willis L. King, vice president of the Jones & Laughlin Company, Pittsburgh, said:

"We have large orders on our books for plates, shapes and bars for delivery the remainder of the year, and with a cessation of building strikes in such great centers as New York and Chicago, a large amount of new work that has been delayed for the past two or three years is now being carried forward. The building outlook in all sections of the country is favorable, and a tremendous tonnage of iron and steel will be used in this work. The railroads have bought heavily this year, but with good crops they will continue big factors in the market next year. Furthermore, I look for the construction of mail, baggage and passenger cars of steel in the near future, thus opening a new field for the consumption of a large amount of material."

BIG ORDER FOR INGOTS.

Government Wants Them for Use in Constructing New Warships—They Cost $4,000 Each.

The Pittsburgh Steel foundry at Glassport has captured a large government order for ingots which will be used for manufacturing shafts for the new warships being built by the United States.

Several ingots have been shipped this week, weighing from 85,000 to 90,000 pounds each.

The ingots are being made for the Fore River Shipbuilding Company. They cost $1,000 each, and are the largest ever turned out. The contract approximates $75,000.

JEALOUSY MAKES TROUBLE AT THE MICHAEL HOME

John Michael of Forty-sixth street was arrested yesterday morning and taken before Alderman Toole, who allowed him to go on his own recognizance for a hearing this morning. It is alleged that Michael became jealous of the attentions another man was paying his wife, and going home intoxicated yesterday started trouble. After displacing the household effects generally, it is said, Michael pulled a revolver and fired twice into the air. At this juncture Detective Merit arrested him.

ALLEGHENY DOG CATCHER THROWS NET OVER BOY

With the aid of a dog catcher John Jerome, a grocer of Brighton road, Allegheny, yesterday arrested Frank Mesmer, aged 14, who is suspected of stealing $20 from a cash drawer. The loss of the money was discovered Tuesday and Mesmer and two other boys were suspected. Young Mesmer entered the store yesterday morning and was accused. He immediately fled and was chased by Jerome. One of the dog catchers saw the pursuit and threw a net over the lad. The latter had $3 in his pocket when locked up.

POPE'S ORDERS TO BE OBEYED

Their Enforcement Will Cause a Temporary Abolition of High Mass and Vespers.

MANY CHURCHES AFFECTED

The day is not far off when in scores of churches of the Catholic diocese of Pittsburgh there will be no high mass or vespers. Bishop Canevin has issued to the clergy and laity of the diocese a circular letter which will be read in all the churches next Sunday. The letter states that the pope's order concerning sacred music is in force and must be obeyed, and that means that in all the churches the services on the following Sunday must be according to the pope's decree.

Every parish church in the diocese has had high mass and vespers every Sunday, and the enforcement of the papal decree will cause their temporary abolition, for the pope has forbidden women to sing in the church choirs, and as in many country districts, and even in some good-sized towns, it is impossible to obtain anything but female choir singers, the result of the strict carrying out of the pope's encyclical letter can be easily realized.

Nearly two years ago Pope Pius X. sent out his famous encyclical. Nearly a year after the diocesan commission on church music prepared its report containing a list in accordance with the papal ideas. The new order of things was not to go into effect until the first of this month, although as a matter of fact, many of the churches of the city shortly afterwards introduced the style of music ordered by the pope and even did away with women in the choirs. Now every church in the diocese must either have the kind of music and singing ordered or must do without it entirely.

The bishops of the country knew how earnest in the matter the pope was, for after the letter was issued representations were made to the pope asking that the decree be modified for the United States. A request that met with a decided refusal. It is the order of the pope that the Gregorian chant and allied styles of music be used in the churches of the Latin rite all over the world, and that the voices of women be heard no longer, thus reintroducing the custom of ancient times.

This is Bishop Canevin's letter sent to the "clergy and laity of the diocese of Pittsburgh" on July 6:

The official promulgation of the commands of the holy father, Pope Pius X., and the regulations made by our venerable predecessor, Bishop Phelan, in his pastoral letter of September 29, 1904, enforcing strict obedience to the words of our sovereign pontiff and forbidding the use in the churches or chapels of the Latin rite of any music not approved by the diocesan music commission, and also forbidding women to be admitted to the choir or the musical chapel, are hereby promulgated anew and declared to be in full force. No choir or congregation that disobeys the vicar of Christ offers acceptable praise to God.

This letter will prove a disappointment to many congregations and choirs. Although the systematic way in which the diocesan authorities went about the matter, the formal appointment of the diocesan commission, the manner in which the report of the commission was given out and read in all the churches might have convinced the skeptical that the new order of things was bound to come, and to be promptly enforced on the date set, many congregations and church choirs and, it is said, even some pastors, hoped the pope might relent at the last moment, for they could not imagine a Sunday without high mass or vespers. However, the law of the church commanding attendance at mass every Sunday is obeyed just as well by hearing a low mass as a high mass, and the way to restore the high mass is to secure or train male singers conversant with the Gregorian chant and similar music.

WOULD CONSOLIDATE.

Window Glass Snappers Seek to Join Window Glass Workers.

A proposition that promises to enlarge and strengthen Local 300, Window Glass Workers, was made yesterday morning when President James Towey of the Window Glass Snappers' National association conferred with President Simon Burns of the local organization with a view toward consolidation.

The snappers' association has a membership of 1,200. There are about 2,500 in the country and the association represents the eastern factories. The western association disbanded last year, but its former members declare that they would join the united body if consolidation takes place. President Burns returned yesterday morning from Cleveland, where he had gone to confer with the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers to make another consolidation proposition. His proposition was rejected, and it is not likely the matter will be taken up again.

BLOOD VESSEL BURSTS WHILE WOMAN IS DANCING

Mrs. Mary Bares of 213 Sixth avenue, Homestead, went to a dance Friday night and nearly lost her life in consequence. She danced so long and so often that she burst a blood vessel just below the knee. The blood flowed freely from the wound and the woman was almost dead when Dr. Mark C. Baldwin arrived. The artery was tied up and the woman taken to her home, but remained unconscious for several hours.

Smith, $215; reflooring bridge over Thompsons run, $250; filling approach to No. 6 bridge, Thompson's run, D. C. Litterio, $774.35; filling approach to bridge over Douglass run to C. M. Oppose New Royal Arcanum Schedule.

At a stormy meeting of Edgar Thomson council No. 512, Royal Arcanum, of Braddock, last evening, William H. Sharah was elected delegate to the special session of the grand council of Pennsylvania, which is expected to request a special session of the supreme council in regard to a reconsideration of the new rate schedule. The council is unalterably opposed to the new schedule.

ALWAYS FRESH FOOD

Crisp and Easily Digested, Malta-Vita Goes Straight From Its Huge Ovens to the Many Who Eat It.

The Malta-Vita Pure Food Co., of Battle Creek, Mich., has adopted a successful method of keeping the public always supplied with fresh Malta-Vita, the perfect food.

When Malta-Vita comes from the ovens, it is the crispest, most delicious food in the world, containing only one per cent of moisture. The other 99 per cent is food—brain and bone and nerve and muscle food—and most easily digested because the gelatinized starch of the thoroughly cooked wheat has been converted, by fine malt extract, into maltose (malt sugar).

No other food preparation contains such a high degree of food quality and such a low degree of moisture.

The Malta-Vita company limits orders from every wholesale dealer to a quantity which the company knows can be disposed of quickly in the wholesaler's territory. The wholesaler, in turn, makes only such shipments to grocers as he knows they will be able to handle satisfactorily.

Thus the grocer's supply of Malta-Vita is always as fresh and crisp as when it comes from the ovens in the big factory at Battle Creek—always the kind that melts in the mouth.

Malta-Vita is so deliciously refreshing and satisfying that it should be in every home. It is the only perfect food. Best for children and best for grown folks.

At all grocers, now 10 cents. Same high quality, same big package as when sold for 15 cents

Brave Women

Women's delicate nerve organism subjects them to much suffering.

As a rule they overlook the wonderful influence their nervous system has upon their general health.

They are not sufficiently impressed with the fact that all their ills are directly traceable to the nervous system.

That the periodical sufferings and headaches are due to weakened nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

is wonderfully successful in revitalizing the nerves and curing all cases of nervous disorders and loss of vitality.

"I was afflicted with female weakness and extreme nervousness. At times was entirely helpless. Three physicians treated me without results. Finally I took Dr. Miles' Nervine and began to improve, and 6 bottles cured me."

Summer woolen for boys is rather a broad expression, as many of the garments can be worn throughout the Autumn and well into the Winter. Take the reefers as an instance of this. And it applies equally as well to the suits.

Boys' double-breasted suits, light and dark cheviots, worsteds and homespuns, sizes 8 to 15 years, a third off.

Boys' Norfolk Suits, light and dark mixtures—bloomer trousers, homespuns, cheviots and worsteds—sizes 7 to 16 years, a third off.

Boys' Russian blouse suits and sailor suits, such as shepherd checks, Scotch effects, mohairs and light mixtures, sizes 2½ to 6 years, a third off.

Boys' reefers, blue serge, tan covert, blue cheviot, sizes 3 to 12 years, a third off.

Boys' topcoats of tan covert and raincoats of dark worsteds, sizes 7 to 14 years, a third off.

Today we'll sell little chaps' Gen. Miles' Suits of blue jean, trimmed in red, at 40c a suit. Better take two for 75c. Sizes for 4 and up to 12.

Thursday, July 20, 1905.

Statistician Hyde of the department of agriculture made a mistake in resigning while his bureau is under investigation in the case of his former assistant, Holmes. No charges have been made against the chief and Secretary Wilson expresses entire confidence in his integrity. Yet the resignation creates a bad impression. It should have been withheld for a more favorable opportunity.

Investigation of the case of former Police Captain Frederick disclosed no general conspiracy in the force. The case itself was bad enough. The sums involved, according to the testimony, were petty enough, but if the system had remained undiscovered it might have grown to considerable proportions. It may be hoped the disclosures will prove a cautionary signal against the development of similar practices in other sections.

It is difficult to see what good can come from the sending of Korean emissaries to Washington to ask the American government to assist in obtaining for Korea the same treatment accorded to Cuba by this country. The Koreans can have but a misty idea of the American intervention in Cuba, or of American international policies. The delegates might have accomplished something by going direct to Japan with their petition, if they have any clear conception of what they want.

Work on the filtration plant is going forward rapidly, under the personal direction of Contractor T. A. Gillespie. This was to have been expected as the energy and ability of the contractor are well known to Pittsburghers. Up to date but two estimates have been filed with the controller, but presently these will come in more rapidly. It is not probable, however, the city will need to market more bonds before next year, so the saving in interest by reason of serial issue will be considerable.

A peculiar situation is created by the decision of the federal court in the case of the floating pool room at Chicago. The wireless messages are held to be interstate commerce and the police of the city are restrained from interfering. The federal judge, however, declared he had no sympathy with the pool room and suggested other proceedings might be inaugurated at once to stop the gambling. This exemplifies one of the weaknesses of the American system, but as the judge intimated, there is still a way to secure justice.

Separate attempts were made yesterday to assassinate the reactionary Pobiedonosteff, procurator of the holy synod, at St. Petersburg, and the vice governor of Finland. The latter attempt was made just after sentence had been passed on the assassin of the former governor of the province. Assassination must be condemned under any circumstances, yet he would be blind who failed to see more than mere individual madness in these repeated outrages in Russia. Excessive repression has driven many Russians to belief in personal assault upon the visible oppressors.

A report has reached Berlin that cannibals in German West Africa have killed and eaten fully 2,000 persons, including eight whites. The German military force is inadequate to prevention of this practice by the bestial natives. It is probable the Herero rebellion has drawn away a part of the ordinary military forces and advantage has been taken of the fact. German capacity to rule such regions is impugned by reports of this character, and it will not be surprising if the news provokes renewed protests in Germany against the government's colonial policies.

Not only did the czar remain away from the meeting of the zemstvo at Moscow, but the police served prompt notice the congress would not be permitted to proceed. Despite the notice an organization was effected, when the police withdrew to prepare summonses for the delegates, and discussion of measures proceeded vigorously. The sentiment was opposed to the plan of government suggested by the minister of the interior, and the spirit manifested was one of resolution. The attempt to prevent this congress is a serious mistake on the part of the authorities and the outcome will be awaited with interest. There is small doubt that if arrests are made today they will be the signal for more widespread and menacing disorders in the empire.

Gone the Wrong Way.

Director Bigelow's abandonment of the plans for a 15-foot cut of the hump and his return to espousing a cut of 18 feet, is the remarkable development of one day. The reason assigned is that opposition at the chamber of commerce meeting made it apparent the 15-foot cut project would fail. According to all of the published reports of that meeting one person opposed the improvement because the cut was to be only 15 feet, one only. That is hardly an adequate explanation.

Looking for a more rational reason for the director's sudden return to the 18-foot idea it is found in the attitude of the property owners to be directly benefited. One waiver exhibited to councils was for "not less than 18 feet." It is probable the director could not obtain waivers to his satisfaction on the more moderate basis and it is possible he foresaw defeat on that basis, and prefers it in the same ditch as last year. From the showing already made there is little likelihood that $2,000,000 would pay the consequential damages incident to the improvement with a 15-foot maximum cut, yet the promoters of the movement make matters worse by flying to the 18-foot idea again.

Recently a public outcry was provoked by a proposition to impose two additional stories on the court house. That "improvement" would have destroyed the symmetry of Architect Richardson's masterpiece. This proposed cut of 18 feet in Fifth avenue will violate equally the plans of the master, going below his base line. Not only will it mar the appearance of the court house as it was designed to appear, but it may endanger its foundations. It was on that ground that county officials objected to the 18-foot cut last year. Mr. Bigelow in abandoning the 15-foot plan adopted by councils has obviously gone three feet in the wrong direction.

Heat Wave Broken.

Grateful relief was brought to a sweltering populace by the showers that came yesterday, unannounced by the weather bureau. The failure of the Washington forecaster to predict rain will be forgotten in the general pleasure that his forecast of "fair and warmer" was not realized. The rain was needed. It was needed by humanity and suffering animals more than by growing vegetation, though it will do no harm to the corn fields, promising an abundant yield.

It is cool enough after the downpour to philosophize a little. The first thought suggested is that despite the achievements of a busy century in mechanical invention, chemical discovery and electrical science, man is still a mere creature controlled by circumstances. He has no control over the elements. He succumbs to the heat, which pesters him more by reason of what he has made in the great towns. He cannot even foretell the relief that is sent from the upper atmosphere by nature at the moment his discomfort is growing unendurable. With these things in mind, however, the average man should be able to go forward to meet the next "torrid wave" calmly, not wearing out his vitality by fretting and fuming over his own affairs that are, after all, so petty by comparison with the grand scheme of the universe.

An Anti-Elkins Movement.

As a conspicuous figure in national as well as state politics, it is not surprising that Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia should have provoked some bitter enmities. His previous elections to the United States senate from that state have been perfunctorily opposed until the time for taking a vote, when a practically unanimous indorsement has invariably been given him. With past contests in mind it is not, therefore, a startling announcement that a cabal of the Republican party in his state will gather at White Sulphur Springs today to inaugurate another emeute, and The Gazette predicts it will be as fruitless as other uprisings against his leadership have been.

It is stated the call for the meeting of the faction is signed by State Senator Montgomery of Preston county. This is not in any sense alarming, but as a diverting incident in the political situation in the little Mountain state it may be said to possess some elements of interest, especially since it is announced that such well-known anti-tax reformers as United States District Attorney Reese Blizzard and the Hon. Charles Fawcett Teter, defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, will take prominent parts in the conference. Others of lesser note add to a list of vigorous but not formidable opponents to Senator Elkins. The senior senator has gone through similar contests in the past and has a well-seasoned experience to guide him in the present instance, which has its inspiration in the long-deferred hopes and definite disappointments of office seekers, the active part taken by Senator Elkins in the preliminary fight for tax reform and his ill-concealed preference for Mr. Dawson for governor as against Mr. Teter—unforgiveable crimes within the understanding of the Teter following, comprising the younger Republican element of the state.

Whatever may be the political shortcomings of Senator Elkins there can be no question as to the valuable service he has rendered the state in developing its resources and promoting its prosperity. He stands high in the national councils of the party and is an invaluable auxiliary of the interests of the commonwealth in the United States senate. It will be a difficult task for any knockers club within the party to prevent his re-election. The real interest in the coming White Sulphur Springs conference will be the revealed name of the person the anti-tax reformers will pit against Mr. Elkins. When that revelation is made the prime object of the gathering may be somewhat clearer. Meanwhile, it is not believed Senator Elkins will be losing any sleep.

Rank Proposals.

It remained for Allegheny to exhibit specimens of the highest development of corporate assurance in the demand for free grants of franchises. The select council of that city yesterday returned to committee three ordinances, each of which proposed to grant street railway rights on certain streets for a period of 50 years, during which time no railways need be constructed, except at the pleasure of the holding companies. They carefully stipulated that no municipal authority should be given to other companies to occupy the streets named.

Allegheny select council neglected an opportunity to do a public service when it returned these bills to committee with recommendations. They should have been voted down without a moment's hesitation. The grant of street franchises for actual public service without compensation is an outrage on the public. The grant of a franchise to exclude public service would be vastly worse. The proposition is an insult to the public. There is but one reason why any franchise should be granted, and that is to secure service to the public. The ordinances under consideration proposed, instead, to prevent any such use being made of a long list of streets. For shame!

An Ancient Right.

Judge Slover, K. C.—not king's counsel, but of Kansas City, Mo.—sitting in divorce court, has upheld the ancient right of a wife to search her husband's pockets. In the case under consideration the judge felt constrained to grant the decree of divorce. Bethinking himself of one of the husband's allegations that his wife was in the habit of "frisking" his pockets after he fell asleep, the learned jurist said in effect: "I want it distinctly understood the charge that the wife searched her husband's pockets has no weight in securing this decree. I shall never interfere with that ancient and sacred right. It is the only means of subsistence some wives have, and I shall never deprive them of it."

As the legal reporters say, this is not only good law, it is good sense. The other grounds of complaint must have been unusually good to secure a decree at all. The husband's complaint that his pockets were rifled convicted him, by implication, of meanness in his allowances, a strong deterrent of wifely affection. The courts must be credited with at least occasional bursts of judicial wisdom, and some human sympathy.

"If The Gazette can show a misquotation from its columns by the Dispatch we will willingly correct it.—Dispatch, July 19. "The Gazette discloses that it would heartily favor a cut of 13 feet on Fifth avenue because that 'could be made within the estimated cost of $2,000,000.'"—Dispatch, July 17. "The 13 feet or so provided for by the court house architects would be ample to reduce the grades in Fifth avenue and Grant street. A less cut would be of great value to the district about the court house and immediately beyond. Such a cut could be made within the estimated cost of $2,000,000, provided damages were waived by all abutting property owners and would be heartily favored by The Gazette."—Gazette, July 16. Will the Dispatch correct this deliberate misrepresentation? The Gazette does not expect the Dispatch to retract its unwarranted innuendoes as to motives, or its adroit pretense that it was this paper and not Director Bigelow who dragged the name of Mr. E. M. O'Neill into the hump discussion.

While Director Bigelow seems to have taken his morning organ into his confidence anent his change of hump plans, he allowed his even more servile afternoon organ to limp in with an editorial declaration that the 15-foot cut had been indorsed by the chamber of commerce. This is unfair.

Lawson is allowing opportunity to pass. A week ago he said he would give his ill-gotten millions to the people. Why not adopt the motto of another successful American and "do it now."

Chairman Gary says the unions are good, but their policies are generally bad. This paradoxical statement has more in it than appears on the surface.

Possibly Director Bigelow doesn't want the hump cut until he has enjoyed the support of his organs through another municipal campaign.

Another Russian general is pining for an opportunity to whip the Japanese. Alas! that Kuropatkin failed in vain.

Statistician Hyde did not want to fight it out on the same line all summer.

At any rate the Pirates did their full duty in the New York series.

Let us hope the corn also needed the rain.

ACROSS THE FIELDS AFAR.

I listen to the Sunday bells
Across the fields afar,
Beyond the din of city and
The roaring of the car;
And ev'ry echo falling soft,
It calls me back again
To shady lanes and sunny meads
Of valley and of plain.

I see the quiet people stroll,
And hear their passing feet.
Again I see the little church
That fronts the village street.
The quaint old pews they beckon me,
The pulpit overhead,
And e'en the marble stones above
My own beloved dead.

Again in fancy leaning there,
Within the corner pew,
I look upon the faces of
The old-time friends and true.
I hear the lowly murmurs of
The softly whispered prayer;
Again I see the pastor with
His crown of silver hair.

The lilac bushes laden with
Sweet censers, they distil
Perfume and shower petals on
The shady window sill.
And Oh, the echoes softly fall
On valley and on plain!
And Oh, the bells they call me to
The little church again!

—Horace Seymour Keller.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By ERASMUS WILSON.

You need have no fears of heat stroke in hot weather if you conduct yourself properly, and if you don't do this you can have no reasonable grounds for complaint if you get a stroke, and get it good and hard.

Eat light, nutritious food in modest quantities, and cut out meats, fancy dishes, desserts, alcoholic and iced drinks.

Most people have a notion that light, nutritious foods are those that require no chewing and are easily swallowed, such as mashed potatoes, corn starch, farinaceous puddings, iced mixtures and gravies.

These are the worst ever, the very worst, and are the cause of more hot weather trouble than any others.

Bread and butter, toast, well-baked potatoes, ripe fruits and seasonable vegetables, tea or coffee, with fish and meat once a day, or if taken oftener, then in smaller quantities.

Starchy foods are prone to ferment, particularly if taken with milk.

Children can use milk more freely than grown persons, who have not kept up the milk habit.

With fermentation of food in the stomach and intestines comes a poisonous gas which, when absorbed vitiates the blood much after the manner of inhaling artificial and natural gas.

* * *

Swilling iced drinks is not only a pernicious habit, but dangerous.

Iced water, or water ice, is an abomination, while cool water is a luxury, but hardly a necessity.

The hotter the weather the colder the water to drink has become the rule in this country, and a very bad rule it is.

Ice chills whatever it comes in contact with, and chills are not healthful. Ice should, therefore, not be allowed to come in contact with water that is used for drinking purposes.

In order that water may be rendered palatable it may be placed in a vessel and surrounded with ice until it has become cool, but not ice cold.

It is thought by some that spring water is colder in summer than in winter, but it only seems to be, it being, at its normal temperature, much cooler than the air in summer time and much warmer in the winter.

Ice water is much better adapted to winter than to summer use, being more in harmony with existing physical conditions, therefore not so likely to check or to interrupt the flow of the life currents, so to speak.

The hotter the weather the hotter the water used for drinking purposes, would be a more rational and sensible rule.

* * *

Next to the abomination of ice water is the ice cream soda fad.

Sparkling soda water, plain or with a little dash of acid phosphate, is not only sane and safe, but is hardly surpassed as a drink for allaying thirst.

But mixed with thick syrups to which ice cream, loaded with raw starch, is added, it becomes a sweet tasted thirst provoker and appetite destroyer. It "cloys" in the stomach, as we say, and is followed by fermentation and general impairment of the digestive apparatus.

If you drink soda water it will be much better to drink it plain and sparkling as it comes from the fountain.

Soda water isn't soda water at all, there not being a particle of soda used in making it. It is simply plain water impregnated with carbonic acid gas under heavy pressure. It is this gas escaping from the water that causes it to sparkle and bubble.

Pure carbonic acid gas is held to be as good for the stomach as it is bad for the lungs, and there is no excuse for it not being pure. It is made by pouring sulphuric acid on carbonate of lime. Marble furnishes the purest and cheapest carbonate of lime, while sulphuric acid is the cheapest and best for producing gas. The marble is ground into fine particles known as marble dust, to which the acid is added in a closed vessel.

* * *

Alcoholic drinks are not only bad but positively dangerous in hot weather.

As you have learned from observation, if not from experience, alcoholic liquors congest the mucuous membranes of the throat and air passages, and in the course of time this congestion extends to other tissues until the nose becomes red, and the face bloated and blotched.

When the weather is hot the conditions are all the more favorable for congestion, so that the use of liquor is apt to bring it on suddenly and dangerously; dangerous because the parts most affected are near the brain and in contact with some of the more important pairs of nerves, particularly the fifth pair, which has much to do with respiration and the circulation of the blood.

Next to liquor drinking comes beer drinking as an injurious and dangerous hot weather habit, beer being only a little slower, but no less certain in its action.

Beer not only impairs digestion, thereby interfering with nutrition, but it imposes extra work on the emunctories, particularly on the kidneys. When these become overworked more or less poisonous matter is left in the blood, which not only affects the general health, but weakens the heart and other vital organs.

The inability of the emunctories to eliminate all the effete matter from the body is indicated by fatness and puffiness of the flesh and by rheumatism, stiffness of the joints and a tired feeling generally.

* * *

Cut down your eating, cut out your drinking, and cut off a lot of work and hurry, and your life will be as secure during the heated term as in spring or autumn.

It being a fact that, as a rule, we eat about twice as much as is good for us, we will be all the better for cutting our bill of fare in half, using only the more simple and substantial part. This may not be altogether satisfactory at first, but in a few days the habit of over-eating will give way and life will become more enjoyable.

Be sure and keep hard bread and toast on the list in order that your teeth may have something to do to keep them healthy. It is lack of work that is causing the general and increasing prevalence of bad teeth. Besides soft, mushy foods are hard to digest because of the small quantity of saliva taken into the stomach with them.

It is better, as far as health and sound teeth are concerned, to chew crusts, gnaw bones and drink water.

Being free agents, however, we may choose to eat to live, or to live to eat. In the latter case we may not hope to live long and enjoy life, but there are a lot of people who choose that way.

And knowing that by all we can say and do we can't change the conditions of the weather, it certainly is most foolish for us to fret and fume because the weather is hot in summer and cold in winter. Nor is it simply foolishness to do so, but it is downright sinful, for in so doing we not only impair our health but develop a habit of fault-finding that may render us unfit to enjoy life in a faultless world hereafter.

Let up on your hot weather lamentations and join the farmer in rejoicing and thanksgiving for such fine harvest weather.

A Book of Facts.

"Natural Gas" is the title of a brochure compiled by F. H. Oliphant of Oil City for the Metric metal works. It contains more accurate information to the square inch than any publication ever issued on the subject, prepared by a man who knows. There is no price attached to it and no advertising connected with it, so far aught that appears it may be an eleemosynary effort. In any event, it ought to be read by every person who is directly, or indirectly interested in natural gas, for it contains all the facts in the most compact shape.

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 19.—With 75 bodies in the cold storage rooms at the Bellevue morgue, the cold storage system was discovered today to be out of order, and Morgue Keeper John Fane admitted it had not been in proper working order for several days. The ventilating apparatus, it was also stated by employes, instead of carrying off the foul air, as intended, is adding to the evil.

When Superintendent Meeks of the outdoor poor department of the department of charities, which has charge of the morgue, learned of the situation he immediately registered a complaint with the authorities at Bellevue hospital, which institution has the contract for supplying the cold storage for them orgue.

Three loads of ice were ordered at once by Superintendent Meeks and more was secured later in the day. People in the neighborhood of the morgue are already alarmed over the situation and fear an epidemic, as it is claimed one was narrowly averted last year when a similar breakdown of the cold storage plant occurred. At that time it was almost impossible to occupy the house in the immediate vicinity of the building. Morgue Keeper Fane and Superintendent Meeks were of the opinion that if sufficient ice can be secured there will be no discomfort to the people living in the neighborhood.

Igorrotes and White Men Battle.

Igorrotes and animal men fought for half an hour early today at Luna park, and not a savage or white man who engaged in the fray is without mark of the strife. Each side claims victory, and each is ready to renew hostilities on slight provocation. Thompson & Dundy have placed all their special policemen on guard at the scene.

The dog-eating propensities of the brown barbarians caused the trouble. The men from Luzon feasted on dog at the celebration of a wedding of two of their number Sunday. Since then they have been greedy for more, and efforts to satisfy them with frankfurters as a worthy substitute have failed. Albert Carrs, the Holland circus man, had reason to believe one of his 18 trained fox terriers had been eaten by the Igorrotes. Then a fine Russian wolf hound, which Mr. Thompson had picked up while at sea in his yacht, was missing.

That was the last straw, a call to arms was sent through the stables and kennels and 40 men carrying pitchforks, huge whips and shovels made an impetuous attack on the camp of the dog eaters. The Igorrotes grasped protecting shields, rushed to their spears and their stone heaps and the white men were being forced into retreat when Peter Barlow, elephant trainer, attached a hose to a hydrant and turned a big stream of water on the savages, who fled to their huts, barring doors behind them.

Kills Child for Revenge of Husband.

In a fit of jealous rage over the supposed infatuation of her husband for a sister, Mrs. Annie Gades, 21 years old, wife of William Gades, stabbed and killed her only child, Hans, 15 months old, early today at her home in Williamsburg. Whether the woman was partly demented by the excessive heat is a matter to be determined by the physicians now observing her mental condition. Four wounds were made. The child was stabbed first through the heart, the blade penetrating the body. The other three wounds were in the abdomen.

Th woman was immediately arrested, charged with murder and was locked up in the Herbert street station, where it was discovered that she, too, was wounded. She was then taken a prisoner to the Eastern district hospital and two policemen were stationed in the place to guard her. After she had been revived at the hospital, the wound not proving a serious one, Mrs. Gades had this to say of her deed: "I killed little Hans, and I intended to kill my husband, too. I was jealous of my sister. I wanted revenge and so I killed my child."

Recovering from Broken Back.

The rapid recovery of Michael Barone, who broke his back two weeks ago, is considered a remarkable thing by the doctors in the Westchester county hospital. At present he is living in comfort, he declares. Barone was employed by the Putnam Railroad Company, and while takin ga noonday nap, fell over a 20-foot embankment and struck his back on one of the steel rails of the railroad company, snapping his vertebrae. He became paralyzed from his waist down and it was thought that he could live but a few hours, but today it was learned his permanent recovery is expected. Before he was placed in a plaster of Paris cast an operation was performed on his spine, and it is believed this saved his life. Barone says he suffers very little pain, and expects he will soon be walking around again.

Bits of Meteor Found.

Fragments of metal, thought to be pieces torn from a meteorite, were picked up at the foot of a flag pole in front of the Borough Park Construction Company, Forty-ninth street and Twelfth avenue, Brooklyn, July 10, after lightning had struck and shattered the pole. Other pieces of metal were found imbedded in the cinder walk in front of the place. Several Brooklyn scientists visited the Borough Park club house and pronounced the specimens fragments of a meteorite. One is in the shape of a crescent, with the color and hardness of copper, streaks of silver running in a network across the surface, which bears a thin crust like varnish.

Seeking Air, and Falls in River.

A feature of the protracted hot period in New York is the number of persons who have come to their death by falling from roofs and windows while asleep. Tenement dwellers draw their beds right up against the window sill in the hope of getting air, and many of them roll out to drop to the stone paved courtyards far below. In utter defiance of danger, men, women and children sleep upon the coping of tenement house roofs or upon the string pieces of piers along the river front from which they fall into the water.

POINT AND INTEREST

Sledging Will Do for Present.

For three years past the Tribune has at intervals expressed the opinion that a flying machine of the Santos-Dumont type would be an aid to polar research. That kind of apparatus has not yet, however, been developed to the point which makes a flight of 500 miles, even in instalments, a practical certainty. Arctic temperatures would raise new problems relative to lubrication and condensation which have not been suitably studied. The time is not ripe for such a venture, therefore. Besides, we do not believe that the possibilities of sledging over the polar pack have been fully exhausted. Peary himself has great confidence that they will prove more propitious in his hands in the future than in the past, and faith is certainly infectious.—New York Tribune.

Graft in Ancient History.

Is this an "era of fraud?" Or is it a scandal-probing era which shows a healthy tone and an awakening sense of honor and honesty? It must be remembered that the very contractors who supplied our starving and freezing troops at Valley Forge, when the fate of the country was in the balance and when a foreign enemy was at the doors of our households, cheated the government and the soldiers. During the wildcat period of the '30s, in the last century, the tone of public and business morals certainly was not any higher than it is today.—Philadelphia Ledger.

What the Sun's Heat Means.

"The sun's heat?" said the astronomer. "Well, let us say that the value of the sun's heat is $25,000,000. Now, what proportion of all that value do you suppose warms the earth? Only two cents worth. All the rest of the sun's heat is wasted in space. Of the $25,000,000 the earth only gets two cents. With coal I can give you another idea of the sun's heat. Suppose that the earth was to compact to heat the sun. Do you know what the result would be? All the coal upon the earth would suffice to maintain the solar heat for just one-tenth of a second."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Why Ryan Surrendered.

The public has long ceased to be surprised at anything which takes place in connection with the Equitable Life Assurance Society, whether in the matter of revelation of past misdeeds or changes in future policy. There is, however, much amazement because Mr. Ryan has been asked by the trustees to surrender his stock to the corporation and he has agreed to do so at cost and four per cent, amounting to considerably more than $2,000,000 for the controlling interest. Without such action on his part the trustees were unable to get suitable men to become directors.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Sane and Insane Purposes.

In contrast with the foolhardiness of two men who risked their lives in a swimming match through the rapids of Niagara stands the humanitarian feat of a Wyoming doctor who raced 120 miles by relays of horses to save the lives of four men injured in a mine explosion. Glover and Graham, who swam Niagara, merely wrote their names on the scroll of notoriety. Their feat was remarkable, but it served no purpose. They are familiar types of men who cast human life in the balance against insane sensationalism.—New York World.

Commendable Action.

When Charles J. Bonaparte went to Washington to become secretary of the navy one of his home friends told him not to forget Maryland. He hasn't. In a letter which President Roosevelt received from him Saturday the secretary makes suggestions regarding names for some of the new vessels of the navy. Among the boats considered are two ocean-going tugs. Mr. Bonaparte suggests that they be called the Patapsco and the Patuxent. These are pretty Indian names and seem appropriate enough, and it may be added that they are the names of two Maryland rivers—the former being that on which Baltimore is located. Mr. Bonaparte's objection to loading down inoffensive government colliers with such absurdly incongruous names as Nestor and Orestes is altogether commendable.—Hartford Courant.

Wheat News from Kansas.

There is big wheat news coming in from Kansas—90 bushels to the acre from one farm in Ford county. Farmers who know a thing or two about great wheat yields may doubt whether enough straw can be stood on end over an acre to shell out 90 bushels. There will be a suspicion that the acre reported was strided off by a long, lanky Kansan who stepped two yards every time and then counted one yard to a stride.—Baltimore American.

An Expert on Hump Removal.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

One of the afternoon papers that has been whooping up the "Hump Removal" prints Contractor McAnally's opinion as to the time it would require to remove the hump, and he fixes the limit at six months. Now, what some of us would like to know, who have been waiting patiently for the completion of the grading of the oval in Schenley park for almost a year, is whether the contractor who was awarded that contract and said the work could be completed in 90 days, is the same as gave the expert(?) estimate on the time it would require to remove the hump?

The work on the Schenley oval began about nine months ago, and if no better progress is made till its completion, it will not be ready before October. Expert opinions, to have weight, should be backed up by a greater display of energy than in the one pointed out.

Beat the Machine.

A father, with his three children, was in a waiting room in the north of England and stopped before one of the weighing machines placed there. Lifting his children he placed them one by one on the machine until all three were on it. Then he put one penny into the slot. The figure indicated was 125 pounds. Lifting one of his children carefully off he found the other two together weighed 78 pounds. The difference, therefore—47 pounds—was the first child's weight. In the same way he discovered the weight of the other two, and then went off highly gratified with his success.—"Tit-Bits."

PICKED UP IN LOBBIES

Well Pleased With Their Trip.

Most of the 37 persons who made up the Henry Epworth league special party from Pittsburgh to the convention at Denver have returned to their homes well pleased with their western trip. One of the members of the party who has just arrived, coming on a different route from most of the others, says that the whole party who so will showed with the success of the trip that words could hardly describe the feelings of those in the party.

"The two special Pullman cars were as comfortable as could have been desired for the trip," said he, "and any criticism for our inconvenience that was developed by our going Blair Bridge, city passenger agent of the Santa Fe here, would have been hard to discover. It was a jolly party that enjoyed the impromptu entertainment provided by some of the members while we were spinning out through Kansas on the Colorado liver of the Santa Fe, and was still jollier when we landed at Colorado Springs and found everything to our liking. Our going earlier than most of the other delegates gave us almost entire charge of every place that we visited; that is, we were not hampered by big crowds like those which visited the Springs, Pike's Peak and other interesting points after the convention. We spent a glorious Fourth on Pike's Peak, and I doubt if there was a more patriotic lot of people anywhere in the union. One of our most enjoyable treats was into a gold mine. The whole trip was a splendid one and well managed."

"Extra Passengers" on the Flyer.

There was "some tall scrambling" in the Union station trainshed when the Pennsylvania special eastbound train pulled into the terminal at 12:40 o'clock yesterday morning. It was scrambling for four "extra passengers" on the first and for half a dozen terminal employes who started to show the passengers the best way out of the station. But the passengers had their own notion of the thing. Two of them broke the windows from the trainshed and jumped through and then jumped to Liberty avenue, a dozen feet below, while the other two ran down the platform to the east end of the shed and there also disappeared over the wall to the avenue. They were "extra passengers" but they did not pay the extra fare charged for riding on the Pennsylvania special. In fact, they did not pay any fare at all, and whether they enjoyed the trip or not they did not stop to say. Two of the "boys" were middle aged while the other two were young men. No trace of them was found afterward by the railroad men or police.

Not on the Watch.

Two Germans, evidently newly in America only a year or two and wanting to meet friends coming from the "old country," stopped up to the ticket window of the Water street station of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad yesterday afternoon and asked Agent W. J. Hutchison the time of arrival of the train from Baltimore. When they were informed by the genial "Mr. Hutch" that the Royal Blue limited would arrive at 7:45 o'clock they seemed satisfied and went over to a seat. Mr. Hutchison noticed that they soon became involved in a discussion and one was holding his watch and looking at it intently. Just as Mr. Hutchison was about to step back to his desk he saw them moving toward the window and one of them hailed him.

"Vat time you say dot train be come?" asked one of them.

"Seven-forty-five," replied the agent.

"Ah! Gut, you see," and then to Mr. Hutchison in explanation: "Dot is my yoe in seven-forty-five, und I no vere to find vun't on der vatch."

A Possible Explanation.

TO SET UP SHOP FOR THE COURT

Drama of "A Pair of Cold Teeth" Will Be Played With Jury as Audience.

DR. FLOWER SUES PATRON

"A Pair of Gold Teeth" should be the title of a legal melodrama which is about to be enacted in court of common pleas No. 2, in which Dr. W. S. Flower, a son-in-law of the late Charles Lockhart, and Mrs. E. W. Gormly, a former aspirant for the presidency of the W. C. T. U., and a prominent worker in that cause, will be the principal stars. Flower, through his attorney, George M. Harton, sued Mrs. Gormly to recover $100 for furnishing her with a set of extra gold teeth.

On the trial of the case, it is stated, Dr. Flower will attempt to demonstrate in the courtroom how a set of teeth made as this set was could not help but be a perfect fit and could not possibly cause pain. For this purpose a complete dental workshop will probably be established in the courtroom.

Dr. Flower claims the defendant called upon him at his office and entered into a verbal contract for a set of teeth, to consist of upper and lower plates, gold mounted on celluloid. For this, it is claimed, she agreed to pay $200 cash upon delivery. The plaintiff alleges he made the teeth in every particular according to contract. He delivered the teeth, fitted them in the defendant's mouth and they were received and accepted by her. A few days later she returned the teeth with a statement they did not fit. The doctor thereupon made certain changes suggested by Mrs. Gormly and offered to deliver them. She then refused to take back the teeth, and suit was entered.

Mrs. Gormly in her affidavit of defense says: "Your deponent is an aged woman and for some years past has felt the need of a full set of teeth, which would give her comfort to wear, cause her no pain, annoyance in conversation and be satisfactory in every particular. With this end in view, deponent consulted a number of specialists in dentistry, but could find no dentist who could make deponent a set of teeth free from imperfections and which deponent could wear with comfort. That defendant was finally persuaded to consult the plaintiff in her efforts to secure a set of teeth, and did call upon plaintiff at his office.

"Plaintiff at once became very much interested in defendant and confidently assured her that plaintiff was the very person, in fact, he said, the only dentist who could make defendant the kind of teeth that she should wear. Plaintiff undertook to explain to defendant that he was a 'surgeon-dentist,' the sort of a specialist which plaintiff said defendant could only afford to consult, and then plaintiff added a detailed account of how he secured his education in surgical dentistry and prepared himself for the practice of his profession. Plaintiff also, in his efforts to gain confidence of defendant, told defendant that plaintiff's father was a dentist before him of very unusual ability; that he, the plaintiff, had the benefit of his father's experience, in addition to all the advances made in the science of dentistry, in fact, plaintiff said he used more gold in manufacturing dental plates than any other surgeon-dentist in the United States."

Mrs. Gormly then goes on to say that Dr. Flower made her the teeth, but she could not wear them without intense pain, although several changes were made. Furthermore, she says, Dr. Flower now has the teeth.

COURT OF OPINION THAT DAVIS DID RIGHT

Misdemeanor Case Against Election Officer Falls and Costs Are Placed on the County.

Without leaving the box and on the advice of Judge Evans, the jury in the case of Thomas W. Davis of the Thirteenth ward, who was charged with intimidating voters at the February election, acquitted the defendant and placed the costs on the county.

James S. Cook, colored, went to the polls with two tax receipts, one for J. S. Cook and one for H. Cook. When he refused to take affidavit as to which receipt was his, Davis, as an election officer, refused to let him vote. Patrick Lacey, a colored policeman, said he tried to get Davis to let Cook vote and that Davis threatened to put him out and to beat him afterwards.

The attorney for Davis declined to make any defense. Judge Evans agreed that none was necessary, the two tax receipts being enough to raise a suspicion to justify the board in its course. As the Voters Civic league, whose representative was the prosecutor, had acted in good faith the court did not think the costs should be placed on the prosecutor.

Charles Tyson, colored, was convicted of voting on a bogus tax receipt.

David and George Washington, negroes, were convicted of robbery before Judge Kennedy. The men are brothers and were charged with holding up several foreigners near East Pittsburgh last summer. They were sent to the workhouse for a year.

Other cases were: John Ebie, larceny by bailee, convicted; George Ruesworm, assault and battery, fined $5 and costs; George Lucivill, selling liquor illegally, three months to the workhouse.

Joseph Carmacino and Leonard Godule, the 17-year-old Italians who were to have been placed on trial in criminal court, the former on a charge of murder and the latter on a charge of murder and accessory to murder, will be tried today.

A. D. Ewing sued E. J. Purcell for $79.47 damages and had a capias issued for the defendant's arrest. Ewing says after he had impounded the defendant's goods for rent, the defendant sold them.

In the case stated of Edward O'Malley and others against the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal Railway Company, common pleas court No. 2 filed an opinion that the plaintiffs cannot vest in the defendants a good and marketable title. The action was to recover $4,500 for property owned by Patrick O'Malley, now deceased, and the court says the whole case turns on his will.

Executions issued: Armour & Co. vs. Fred J. Zimmerman, $132; Leedon & Worrell Company vs. Joseph Miron, $198; F. H. Hauch vs. Ely Richards, $1,368; John A. Hafner vs. Ernest Riedel, notice, $1,130; Colonial Trust Company vs. Ellen L. Davis et al, notice, $1,110; J. A. Wakefield, use, vs. R. H. M. Mackenzie, $1,212; Melvin G. Campbell vs. Joseph P. Hough et ux, $2,366; McKeesport Land & Improvement Company, use, vs. Edward E. Dunlap, notice, $292; Pittsburgh Bank for Savings vs. J. M. Forse, $4,423; John Gusage vs. Hypolit Szntowicz, $150.

Judge Buffington Returns.

Judge Joseph Buffington, accompanied by Clerk of the United States District Court William T. Lindsey, arrived home from Erie yesterday afternoon. The session of the district court was one of the shortest held in Erie for several years. The United States circuit court is still in session in Erie and will probably not finish until the end of the week. Among the important cases that will be tried by this court is the suit of the Backer Oil Company against the Erie railroad. The suit involves the destruction of a number of oil derricks, which, it is averred, was caused by sparks from a locomotive. Two hundred witnesses have been subpenaed in the case.

Many Suits Are at Issue.

A list of all cases on the dockets of the common pleas courts has been prepared by Prothonotary W. B. Kirker. The suits now ready for trial on the issue dockets are 2,290 in common pleas court No. 1, 1,152 in common pleas court No. 2 and 1,412 in common pleas court No. 3; a total of 4,854. Last year about 700 suits were carried through until they reached a jury, but very many cases are settled before this stage is reached. At the present time 6,460 cases are pending in the three courts, but nearly one-third of these have not been placed on the issue docket.

Friday Is Court Day.

Beginning with tomorrow Friday will be "court day" in Allegheny county until the fall terms open. Judge Evans, who is to sit on all the common pleas and criminal courts during the summer, announced that he would hold court on Friday of each week, the session to open at 9:30 a. m. Until further notice there will be no court on Saturday.

GETTING FIGURES ON FILTRATION

Contracting Company Has Army of Men at Work at Plant Near Aspinwall.

ONLY TWO ESTIMATES ARE IN

The work on the filtration plant at Aspinwall is progressing rapidly. So far the contractor, the T. A. Gillespie Company, has handed in only two estimates and already the firm has done more than $200,000 worth of work. An army of men is making excavations, new machinery for digging and mixing and laying concrete is in use, and a mile of tramway has been put down. T. A. Gillespie, the head of the company, has taken personal charge of the work, and it now looks as if another batch of bonds, amounting to a million or so, will have to be issued next spring.

There are 10 different contracts in the work. Those for machinery are, of course, not yet ready to be filled, but on all those requiring excavation the firm is working. Two of the 46 filter beds are already dug out, and on one of them the concrete flooring has been laid. The huge foundations for the big smokestack are about completed.

The estimates in the controller's office contain some big figures. Nearly 100,000 cubic yards of dirt have been taken out under the head of "general excavation," not counting the many thousands of cubic yards represented by trenches. Already 6,555 feet of 72-inch pipe has been delivered on the ground and a good-sized forest would represent the number of feet of lumber used for piling and "forms."

The exact amount of money which will have been paid to the firm, after it has collected the warrants due on the second estimate which has just gone through the controller's office, is $156,769.18. Of this amount $118,762.02 is due on the last estimate, No. 2, and $76,907.11 has been paid on estimate No. 1. The actual work done by the contractor represents about $21,742 more, as 10 per cent is deducted from all the estimates by the city, to be paid when the work is completed. Here is a detailed statement of the amount of work done by the contractor, including the figures of both estimates and before deducting the 10 per cent:

Contract No. 1, $81,081 20; No. 2, $15,377 70; No. 3, $16,206 35; No. 6, $18,895; No. 7, $11,158 80; No. 10, $74,691 84; total, $217,411 15.

The Death Roll.

Mrs. Frederick Niedhammer.

Mrs. Julia Lauer Niedhammer, aged 83, wife of Frederick Niedhammer, a retired dairyman of the East End, died yesterday morning from a stroke of paralysis which she suffered four weeks ago. Mrs. Niedhammer was the daughter of Philip and Rachel Lauer of Germany and was born in that country, coming to Pittsburgh in 1851, two years after her marriage to her husband. The couple until a year ago, when they went to live with their daughter, Mrs. A. Schiedenhelm, 170 Mayflower street, had lived in their first home in this city, 6347 Penn avenue. Mrs. Niedhammer was a member of the German Lutheran church, and until her last sickness took a very active part in church and charitable work. She is survived by her husband and the following children: A. H. and Frederick Niedhammer, Jr., live stock commission merchants at Herrs island stock yards; Mrs. A. Schiedenhelm, Mrs. C. Bartels and Mrs. J. P. Glanger, all of this city, and 13 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Two brothers, John Lauer of the Pennsylvania railroad and Philip Lauer, retired, and a sister, Mrs. Rachel Sweitzer, all of this city, also survive. Funeral services will be held at her daughter's residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be in charge of the Rev. J. C. Broomheld, pastor of the Fourth Methodist Protestant church.

Preston Wayne Brown.

Preston W. Brown, second son of former Senator John H. Brown of Westmoreland county, died suddenly of hemorrhage at the country home of his father on Tuesday evening. Preston Brown was born February 9, 1880. After being graduated from Jeannette High school and Greensburg seminary, he entered Washington and Jefferson college and was of the class of 1904. He gave great promise, being a leader in his classes and in athletics. He was prevented from completing his course by an attack of typhoid fever, followed by the development of tuberculosis. He spent a year in the pineries of the North Carolina highlands and another at Ebensburg, with benefit, so the sudden fatal recurrence of his malady was a complete surprise to his friends. Mr. Brown is survived by his parents, one brother, Walter, and two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Gordon of Allegheny and Miss Mary, at home. He was a member of the Jeannette M. E. church. Funeral services will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the interment being made later in Brush Creek cemetery.

In J. L. McCutcheon's Memory.

A meeting of the Allegheny County Bar association was held yesterday afternoon in memory of John Lindsay McCutcheon. Judge Collier presided. The vice presidents were Judge Hawkins, Judge Brown, Judge Young, Judge Kennedy, former Judge Reed, Judge McKenna, Thomas Patterson, Thomas Herriott and William P. Schell. John McC. Kennedy, Leander Trautman and Bruce Orr acted as secretaries. Addresses were made by Judge Collier, Judge Porter, J. Charles Dicken, D. L. Starr, Thomas M. Marshall, Jr., and F. C. McGirr. A committee consisting of Judge Porter, F. C. McGirr, C. C. Dickey, Thomas M. Marshall, Jr., and Frank C. Osborne presented appropriate resolutions which were adopted.

Allen Dilliner.

Allen Dilliner, aged 93, died yesterday morning at his home in Dunkard township, Greene county, about one mile south of Point Marion. He had lived all his life within three miles of his birthplace, and his father, George Dilliner, was the first white child born in Greene county. Allen Dilliner had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since 1841, and held the first public prayer meeting in Point Marion. Of the 12 brothers and sisters there is now living only Ambrose Dilliner, who will be 90 years old in September. Allen Dilliner is survived by seven children, of whom Mrs. James E. Williams, wife of a Methodist Episcopal minister in Pittsburgh, is one.

James H. Knapp.

James H. Knapp died yesterday at his home in Irwin avenue, Sewickley, aged 58. He was born in Stamford, Conn., and came to Pittsburgh in 1886. He was an insurance broker and had lived in Sewickley since 1888. He was a member of the Sewickley Presbyterian church. His widow, Mrs. Fannie W. Knapp, and the following children survive him: Elizabeth, Hazelwood; Annie, Baltimore; Marian, Dayton, O.; Gertrude, Spencer H. and James H., Jr., at home.

Mrs. Sutton Leek.

Mrs. Fanny Leek, aged 70, wife of Sutton Leek, died yesterday at her home in Stockholm street, McKeesport, from cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Leek was a member of several secret societies and St. Stephen's Episcopal church, McKeesport. Her husband is a manufacturer of McKeesport. She is survived by him and one brother in Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Karl Weichler.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weichler, wife of Karl Weichler of Linden avenue, East Pittsburgh, died at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning of hemorrhages. She was born in Germany and was a member of St. Coleman's Roman Catholic church, Turtle Creek. Her husband and six children survive.

THE PIRATES WIN AND PENNANT RACE GROWS CLOSER

THREE STRAIGHT FOR THE PIRATES

Clarke's Crew Outplay Giants at All Points and Bump Taylor's Curves Hard.

GREAT WORK BY WAGNER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 19.—Another defeat for the Giants, the third in succession, and on their own grounds, too, was the parting shot given by the Pirates this afternoon at the Polo grounds. Score: Pittsburgh 8, New York 5.

This is the record for the season, as the best any visiting team has received here from the New Yorks was an even break on the series. But for the abominable short right field fence on which Browne made a home run and scored a man ahead of him in Saturday's game, the Pittsburgh club would have made a clean sweep of the series. This afternoon's up-hill game was baseball all the way.

The visitors got the first run, Clymer leading off with a single. In the second the local players went them two better, the first batter up hitting Flaherty for four bases. This was the finish of Flaherty, Clarke sending Leever in to relieve him. The Giants increased their lead in the fourth by adding two more runs, making as total of five to the visitors' two. In the fifth Pittsburgh piled up four runs, taking the lead from the Giants, and were never headed, as the Giants were blanked during the last five innings.

Umpire baiting was plentiful, Taylor, McGann and Donlin being the chief offenders in this style of play. Taylor started the kicking in the fifth and was backed up by McGann, who was finally ejected from the grounds by Umpire Klem, Strang going to the first turn. Donlin was also put out of the game, Strang moving to center and Bill Clarke going to first. In coming in from the field in the middle of the fifth Manager Donlin said something that Klem did not like and Mike was put out of the game. A few beer glasses and bottles were thrown towards the umpire from the bleachers, but the appearance of police put a stop to this quickly. One of the bottles hit Umpire Klem below the knee.

The batting rally in the fifth made Leever forget about the hot weather for the remainder of the game. He pitched finely and seemed to have the Giants under a spell. Clymer's batting was a revelation of what he has been doing for the last few days. Indeed, every man except Leever got one or more hits off Taylor, Clarke, Leach and Howard each having two to their credit. Wagner's chances in the field were few, but bordered on the phenomenal. Brain and Beaumont each had five putouts.

Pittsburgh got the corners filled with nobody down in the opening inning. Wagner struck out, McGann fumbled Gilbert's throw to first and Howard was safe, while Clymer scored. Brain took the count without even swinging at the ball, and Beaumont shot an easy grounder to Gilbert, closing the inning.

With two out in the third inning Howard got a clean double into deep center and scored on Browne's muff of Brain's fly after a long run. Brain was thrown out trying to steal second. It was one, two, three in the fourth inning.

The fifth inning proved the undoing of Taylor. Clymer shot a hot one through Gilbert and went to second on Clarke's single to left. Leach laid down a nice bunt and beat it out, filling the bases. Taylor waxed wroth at the first-base decision, but finally was pacified by Bowerman and went back in the box. McGann was not so easily quieted and Klem put him out of the game. Wagner very promptly slammed the ball against left field fence for two bases, scoring Clymer and Clarke. Howard lifted one to Browne, on which Leach scored the tieing run. Wagner made a daring steal of third base and scored on Brain's out from Dahlen to Strang with the winning run. Beaumont closed the inning by being fanned.

Brain tried to knock down the left field bleachers with a drive for half the route after Wagner and Howard had been retired. Beaumont, by fast sprinting, beat out a slow hit to Devlin and Pietz singled, scoring Brain.

The visitors made their last run in the ninth. Howard singled to left, Brain beat out a bunt and Howard stole third. On Beaumont's out, Gilbert to first, Howard scored the eighth run.

The Giants took it on the run in their half of the first inning. In the second Mertes, the first man up, hit the first ball pitched to the right field bleachers for a home run just as it began to look like rain. Dahlen followed this with another, as he thought, but Beaumont crabbed the ball in the run. Devlin had more luck and singled to center. The wind swept Gilbert's fly past Clymer and it fell safe for two bases, sending Devlin to third. Flaherty made a balk, allowing Devlin to score and Gilbert to move up to third. Bowerman dumped an easy one to Flaherty, but Gilbert made a great stride for home and was safe. Taylor popped to Brain. Browne followed with a two-bagger to right and Bowerman was tagged at the plate on his little rap.

The fourth inning put the Giants away in the lead momentarily. Gilbert singled. Bowerman got his base, being hit on the hand by a pitched ball. Both runners were advanced on Taylor's sacrifice and Browne's smashing two-bagger to right, sending them home in a canter. Beaumont in going after Donlin's long fly stumbled, but got up quick in time to make the catch easily. McGann went out at first, Leever to Howard.

"Mugsy" got in the game in the final inning as a last resort. Bresnahan batted for Taylor and walked. McGraw relieved Bresnahan at first so as to run for him. Browne fooled to Peitz. Clarke flied to Clymer. McGraw made another effort and by fast running stole second, but no further did the Giants' manager get, as Strang ended the game on a weak splash to Leever.

The Pirates left tonight for Philadelphia, where they meet the Gleason outfit in a double-header tomorrow. All the players feel in good spirits over their good showing around Greater New York, where they won six out of eight games, three in Brooklyn and three from the champions. The score:

Brushton Birds Make Fine Time in Race from Kansas.

The Pittsburgh district of the National Association of Homing Pigeon Fanciers held its seventh old bird race of the season from Hays, Kan., an air line distance of 1,035 miles. Seven birds were liberated by A. W. Noble at that place on Sunday, July 9, at 7:30 a. m., eastern standard time. He reported weather clear and calm. AMERICAN TENNIS CRACKS DISPLAY THEIR FINE SKILL Defeat Australasians in Easy Style—Team Has Improved, and Cup Holders Are Anxious.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, July 19.—The only interest in the third day's play in the Dwight F. Davis tennis cup competition was with regard to the possibility of the Americans gaining the maximum points against the Australians, which they did, both William A. Larned and Beals C. Wright winning their matches. Larned beat Norman E. Brookes, the Australian champion, three sets to love, and Wright accounted for A. F. Wilding by two sets to love. The Australian players were not anxious to play as the Americans had already won three points out of five, proving their right to meet the holders of the cup, but the rules made it necessary for the teams to play out the three days' program. Wright and Wilding arranged to play the best two out of three sets instead of the best three out of five and Wright won.

The first set of the match between Larned and Brookes was one more of endurance than a display of brilliant tennis. After that the game was without feature except for the regularity with which each won his service. The American won. The second set fell easily to Larned, Brookes showing signs of fatigue. Larned took matters easily in the third set and won without effort.

The American team has improved wonderfully since arriving here, and has established beyond doubt its right to challenge for the cup. The Americans have not selected the team for the challenge round which will be played at Wimbledon July 21, July 22 and July 23, but it is probable that Ward and Wright will play in the doubles and Clothier and Larned in the singles. After the match the American team will return direct to the United States to take part in the championships there. They are trying to persuade the Doherty brothers to accompany them.

BUTLER AGAIN BEATEN.

Cushman Pitches His Eleventh Shutout of the Season.

The Edgar Thomson Works team of Braddock took advantage of the cease in the rain-storm yesterday afternoon and had barely enough time between the rain drops to defeat Butler for the second time in a seven-inning contest, 3 to 0.

The game was played on a slow field, but despite this fact the Edgar Thomson team played an errorless game in the field, while the visitors piled up three errors, which was costly. Cushman was on the rubber for the Braddock team and again had a shutout to his credit, making eleven this season. He has won 16 contests and lost but one during the season. Score:

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Elihu Root of New York was formally inducted into office as secretary of state today, and devoted practically all the morning and afternoon to the consideration of the Venezuelan situation.

With Solicitor Penfield, Minister Russell of Venezuela and William J. Calhoun, who was recently designated by President Roosevelt to investigate the case of the asphalt claims and concessions, the secretary went over the documents and papers on file in the department with a view of formulating definite instructions to the special commissioner. Commissioner Calhoun will have to gather additional information in Washington and New York before he is fully equipped to perform the mission for which he has been selected.

The oath was administered by William McNeir, assistant librarian of the state department. The ceremony, which was very simple, took place in the office of Assistant Secretary Loomis, the office of the secretary still bearing the emblems of mourning for the late Secretary Hay. Solicitor Penfield of the state department, Senator Dick of Ohio and a number of personal friends of Mr. Root were present.

WEATHER CLOSES ON HORSE SHOW

Atlantic City Society Enjoys Another Day With Handsome Equines.

PITTSBURGHERS AT THE EVENT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 19.—An ugly-looking storm drove a shower of rain and a cloud of dust across the ring at the horse show grounds while the last class for hunters was in the ring this afternoon and sent the spectators scurrying for cabs and trolleys. A harness event, the closing of the afternoon, was postponed until tomorrow, and the judging of the hunters was closed up after Sapolio, with "Dick" Donnelly up, had crashed into dust obscured rails without injury to himself or his rider. Sydney Holloway's West Chester stables took the first three ribbons in this event, with Centennial, Oneries and Fleurette.

Chief interest of the day lay in the contest between Mrs. J. B. Grosvenor and Mrs. John Gerken, both New York exhibitors, for honors in the class for ladies' saddle horses. Mrs. Grosvenor announced that Corinna, kicked in a mixup in the ring yesterday, would be shown today, but elected to ride Petroleum, her black horse, winner of prizes in the open classes yesterday. Mrs. Gerken pinned her faith to Mayo, but both went down before Corinne, who was ridden around the ring by Mrs. C. A. Beach of New York. Mrs. Gerken carried away the red, and Petroleum was placed third, losing on the fine form of the others for ladies' use.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt drove his brown gelding Alert in the amateur class for harness horses. Mrs. Gerken drove Newsboy to victory and Miss Vera Morris handled the ribbons over her Little Fritz without a winning. Mrs. A. O. Van Housen of New York drove Sinner, entered from her stable. Eloquence, a New York horse, took second, and Beldeau, shown by C. W. Watson of Baltimore, third.

Two interesting sales were reported during the day. E. S. Stotsbury of Philadelphia sold Leonora and Lettie Lee, a bay harness pair, to C. W. Watson at the ringside, and the team took a blue in the first event under the Watson colors. Dick Donnelly announced the sale of his fine polo pony, Hunni Bun, to Dan Hanna, son of the late Senator Hanna, with a string of other ponies, and the animal is to be shipped to the Hanna farm in Ohio without being shown at the present show.

SAYS HE MARRIED WOMAN JUST TO PLEASE HER

Accommodating Mr. Ingraham Says His Wife Asked Him to Wed Her.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

EDINBURGH, July 19.—Singular documents were submitted today in the suit of Nathaniel Gibbs Ingraham, formerly of New York, against his wife, formerly Edyth Newcomb Ward, pending before the court of sessions here. Mr. Ingraham asks that his wife be ordered to carry out their ante-nuptial settlement, under which he claims he is entitled to $1,500 a year, and also claims $4,000 a year by virtue of a bond granted in his favor.

The wife contends the contract and bond were obtained by fraud. She alleges that after her separation from her first husband, Reginald H. Ward, the plaintiff induced her, by various insidious devices like fortune telling, to institute divorce proceedings against Ward, and also induced her husband to consent to the proceedings. They were divorced in 1903 and she then married Ingraham.

Before the marriage, Mrs. Ward says, she was taken to a lawyer's office and was induced to sign an ante-nuptial contract without reading the papers or knowing what they contained. Ingraham says Mrs. Ward proffered marriage to him first and he declined, but afterward consented to please her, as she was in poor health.

Mrs. Ward was Miss Edyth Newcomb of Kentucky, daughter of H. Victor Newcomb, at one time an important factor in Wall street. Reginald H. Ward, who was known in London as "Count" Ward, was at one time American consul there. At one period of his career Ward was known as the "Copper King." Ingraham is a grandson of Justice Ingraham of the supreme court of the city of New York.

PREPARE FOR STRUGGLE.

Anthracite Agreement Expires Next April and First District Convention Prepares Demands.

SCRANTON, July 19.—Today's session of the annual convention of the United Mine Workers of the first district were enlivened by one or two discussions of subjects of more than ordinary importance. George Watkins, former president of Scranton labor council and a member of the mine foremen's examining board, said the union was not what it should be in the first district and the salaried board was "sapping the life out of it." He presented a resolution for the abolition of the board. It was defeated.

A resolution was also adopted, making the following demands in connection with the contemplated new agreement with the operators, the old agreement expiring next April: An eight-hour day; weighing of coal; uniform wages for all hands; a uniform scale for rock, slate, water and all dead work; an agreement between the United Mine Workers of America and the operators.

EXAMINATION OF HANNA.

NEW CASTLE, July 19.—(Special.)—The official investigation into the $3,758 shortage of ex-City Treasurer Alex C. Hanna will be begun tomorrow morning at city hall by the special committee appointed 10 days ago by councils. Chairman Morris Culkerbaum today said the general public will be admitted to the investigation.

Subpoenas have been served on all who are in any way able to throw light on the treasury shortage, except J. Francis Hanna, who was his father's assistant in the office. He is in camp at Erie as a member of Troop F and will be asked to testify next week after his troop returns home.

CLUBS

Protests Against Over-Eating.

"Over-eating and too frequent eating are the causes of much of the mortality among little children." This was the statement made by Dr. Millie J. Chapman yesterday afternoon during an address she made at the first mothers' meeting in the Soho Settlement house, 2404 Fifth avenue. "It is not insufficient food and care, but over-eating and maternal ignorance which lead to the troubles resulting in the death of the babies. Ignorance rather than poverty is to blame for this distressing condition." With these statements prefacing her remarks, Dr. Chapman explained the needs of the children during the hot weather, what their diet should be, the amount of bathing required and the simple means of relieving fever and overheated conditions, not by ice cold applications, but rather by those which are tepid and even hot.

Almost a score of women were present, among them being a number of the mothers of the children who attend the children's library and reading room in the settlement house, together with members of the settlement committee. Mrs. Jane Hall presided at the meeting and explained the purpose of the mothers' meetings, which will continue during the summer, though not held at regular times. Mrs. George Porter, the chairman of the settlement committee, told of the aims of the house, and Mrs. James C. Dick was enthusiastic over the success of the sewing class, of which she spoke.

The music yesterday was a great treat, the Chaminade quartet singing a number of songs, including several lullabies which touched the hearts of many of the women present, and brought tears to their eyes while the children listened spellbound. The Chaminade quartet is composed of Mrs. J. B. Schaub, Mrs. Leah McCabe, Miss Elinor Olive and Miss Eva Sykes. After the music lemonade and cake were served.

Realizing that music may be one of the most successful means of reaching the young people of Soho, the committee has secured the services of Everett Parker Johnson, who will commence choral work in September, organizing classes composed of the young men and women. The children have already been reached through the sub-station of the Carnegie library, which last week showed an attendance of 360 people, of which 352 were children. Though many only read the books in the reading room, 150 books were taken out, the number of books in circulation being over 200. The sewing class, which meets on Thursday afternoons, has an enrollment of 40, and in addition to the sewing, the children in the class have various forms of physical culture and singing.

Outings for the Poor.

The Sunday school of Calvary Protestant Episcopal church, East End, gives a weekly outing for the poor today in Highland park. The guests of the Sunday school will be 75 people selected by the Society for the Improvement of the Poor and 35 children from the Episcopal Church Home in Penn avenue. They will be taken out to the car barns at the entrance to Highland park, where wagons will be ready to carry them over to the large summer house in Rhododendron park, within the limits of Highland, where lunch and supper will be served. Ice cream is to be one of the special treats today. After the lunch the wagons will take the entire party over to the zoo. Possibly there will be boat rides on Lake Carnegie for the little people and then all will return to the shelter house where the supper will be served.

Next week 75 colored people and the newsboys will be given a similiar outing in Highland park by the Calvary Sunday school, which for nearly 10 years has given these weekly outings during the months of July and August. Last Thursday their guests were 50 people from the Lawrenceville district and 21 of the residents at the Home for Incurables. The Sisterhood was in charge of that outing and several members of the automobile club went out to the Home for Incurables in Butler street with five autos and took the aged or crippled men and women for their first automobile ride. In the morning they toured Schenley park, arriving in Highland park at the shelter house in time for lunch. During the afternoon they made a tour of Highland park and after tea at 5 o'clock they were taken back to the home.

Break Ground for New Building.

Ground was broken on Monday morning for the new building to be erected by the board of managers of the Home for Incurables. The building, which will be entirely separate from the main building, though connected with it by a covered corridor, will be located on the northern side at the right of the present institution. It is being erected at a cost of $30,000 and will be finished in eight months. Though the money has been raised for the new building, which will be of brick and uniform in style with the present main building, the endowment needed for its support is not yet completed. The board hopes to have an increased endowment of from $80,000 to $100,000 from which to derive an annual income of at least $4,000 for the new building, which is to accommodate 200 men. At present about $55,000 has been secured.

No Quorum Present.

The monthly meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Milk and Ice association yesterday was not held, as a quorum was not present. The officers of the society have decided to have circulars printed for the benefit of the foreign people in the lower Herron Hill district, acquainting them with the location and the purpose of the distributing station in the chapel of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church.

THE DAY AT CHAUTAUQUA.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., July 19.—(Special.)—Probably the most interesting feature of the day was the medical question box conducted by Dr. William Seaman Bainbridge at The Women's club. One of the first questions asked, "What is aqua?" was quickly defined by Dr. Bainbridge as a sound made by a two-legged feathered animal trying to talk, and the intended catch was neatly turned aside.

In answering a question about cancer, Dr. Bainbridge emphasized the fact that at no time in the history of America has the subject of cancer been so much in the minds of the people as at present, partly because there is apparently a real increase in its frequency, because it has carried off so many distinguished and useful citizens, and because of the many theories as to its origin and cure which have been exploited within the last few years. Statistics from the United States census show that from 1850 to 1320 the mortality from cancer increased from 8 to 22.5 per cent to 100,000 of population. The more accurate diagnosis of the present time and the fact that more cases are reported do not entirely account for this statistical increase.

At the annual prize spelling match, always an event of great interest here, Henry M. Robert, Jr., of Stamford, Conn., won the first prize and Miss Loula D. King of Youngstown, O., the second.

Mrs. Martha C. Weed, who, in the interests of the Inter-Denominational Council of New York, attended the meetings of the committee for the investigation of the Reed Smoot case in connection with Mormonism, lectured this morning on "The Menace of Modern Mormonism."

STOCKS REMAINED DULL, BUT PRICES ADVANCED

High Grade Railroad Issues Scored the Largest Gains—Pittsburgh Coal Preferred Broke to the Lowest Price of the Year.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market remained extremely dull yesterday, but the tone was firmer, and prices averaged higher at the close. During the early part of the day the intense heat kept brokers away from the exchange, and during the latter part of the afternoon the windstorms in the middle west interfered with telegraphic communication and cut off the new commission orders that might have come from the country.

The largest gains were made by the high-grade stocks which are selling close to double par. Northern Pacific made a new high record by selling at 206¼, and closed at 205, a net advance of 6¾ per cent. Great Northern closed 5 per cent higher. Illinois Central was an active feature during the early part of the session and in anticipation of an increased dividend advanced to 171¼. Early in the afternoon when the dividend was announced as the regular semi-annual 3 per cent and an extra of ½ per cent, being the same as declared six months ago, the stock sold off sharply to 168¾, and closed at 169¼, a net loss of ½ per cent. Traders had looked for the semi-annual dividend rate to be made a regular 3½ per cent, and the decline was their expression of disappointment that the regular rate remained unchanged. The effect of this incident was to check the advancing tendency in the remainder of the list, and a reaction followed which carried prices to the lowest of the session. A recovery set in before the close, however, and final sales displayed some firmness.

Pennsylvania was rather heavy, and sold off to 142½, closing near the lowest, a decline of ⅝ per cent. Reading also closed ⅛ per cent lower, while Baltimore & Ohio closed a fraction higher.

The review of the iron trade by an acknowledged authority was more cheerful than for several weeks, but had little effect upon the market for this group of stocks. United States Steel common closed ⅛ higher and the preferred ¼ higher. Amalgamated Copper opened at 85½ to 85⅝, but reacted a point and closed ⅝ lower for the day. It is expected that the directors will meet today to take action on the dividend, but the action of the stock indicated less confidence of an increase in the rate.

There was some activity in the minor industrials, but prices were irregular. United States Rubber was strong and advanced to 47¾, closing with a net gain of 1⅞ per cent. American Woolen common closed 1 per cent higher. American Cotton Oil, on the other hand, was weak and declined to 27¾, closing at a net loss of 2¼ per cent. The pressure against National Biscuit placed it and that stock fluctuated within narrow limits.

There was little news of an influential character. A number of important roads reported increased gross earnings for the second week in July, and the primary movement of wheat and corn continued on a large scale. Both wheat and cotton rallied and closed higher. The call loan market remained easy and unchanged. Operations of foreigners in the stock market were insignificant and had no influence upon values.

In the local market the dealings were largely confined to Pittsburgh Coal and United Copper. Pittsburgh Coal preferred opened off 3 per cent at 49 on the passage of the dividend, recovered quickly to 50⅛, and then on the weakness displayed in New York broke to 47½, the lowest of the year. There was a slight recovery to 49¼, the final sale, and the stock closed at 49 bid, representing a loss for the day of 3 per cent. A little more than 2,800 shares came upon the market, and the buying was thought to be largely for the purpose of covering shorts put out at higher prices. The common stock was dull, only 150 shares changing hands at 12 to 12½, the market closing at 12¼ bid. River Coal preferred was firmer, advancing to 23, and closing at 22¾ bid, 25 asked. Traders figured out from the official statements that the River Coal Company was doing relatively better than Pittsburgh Coal, and that if the remaining four months of the fiscal year are as good as the last four months, a dividend at the close of the year is reasonably certain. The steel stocks were extremely dull, but closed steady and unchanged for the day. Only one share of United States Steel preferred changed hands all day. Lustre was strong, advancing to 26¾, and United Copper closed at 31¾ bid, the highest ever quoted. Independent Brewing preferred was firmer, advancing to 40¾. Westinghouse Air Brake declined to 146. The remainder of the list was neglected.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The 3 per cent net loss in Pittsburgh Coal preferred yesterday was smaller than might have been looked for, in view of the very general bearish feeling on the stock, and the disappointment which naturally followed the passage of the dividend. The disposition of traders is to gauge the probable course of Coal preferred by the course of Crucible preferred, just after the latter passed its dividend. The two stocks once occupied a very similar position in the estimation of traders, and the fact that in October, 1903, when the Crucible dividend was passed, that stock broke from 60½ to 28¾ on the marketing of 40,000 shares, and recovered to only 31½ by the end of the month, is cited as a precedent for Pittsburgh Coal preferred. While not attempting to forecast the future course of Pittsburgh Coal preferred, it may be stated that general conditions today and in October, 1903, are radically different. At the time when Crucible was having its troubles two banks in this community closed their doors and other large financial institutions all over the country were suspending. Revelations in connection with United States Shipbuilding and other promotions were dragging down the New York stock market, and the rampant overspeculation in local bank and trust company shares had placed the local situation in a critical position to say the least. In addition to this the iron trade was on the downgrade, and the dividend on United States Steel preferred was in question. Financial, commercial and industrial conditions were the direct opposite to those now prevailing, and they had their effect not only on Crucible preferred, but on high grade investment stocks.

National Fireproofing preferred lost 1⅜ on the sale of 100 shares at 32½, which is within a small fraction of the low price of the year. There were no transactions in the common, which was quoted at 8¼ bid, 8½ asked.

The strength of River Coal preferred, which advanced to 23, while the rest of the market was declining, was based upon the statement of the directors that the net earnings for the eight months of the fiscal year were $200,000. For the full fiscal year ending with October 31, 1904, the earnings applicable to dividends were only $154,000, representing 77 cents a share, which was distributed to stockholders. The expectations are that if the remaining four months are as good as the last four months just past, the earnings applicable to dividends will be considerably more than double the earnings of the last fiscal year.

Local mining stocks were all firm yesterday. Ohio Tonopah rallied 4 cents a share to 32 cents, United Copper closed at 31¾ bid, the highest ever quoted, and Luster sold at 26¾, the highest price realized for a quotable lot on the present capitalization. There was a better demand in the outside market for some of the unlisted mining shares.

There were no transactions in Westinghouse Electric, which was nominally quoted at 82 bid, 83 asked. Union Switch and Signal was offered at 81 and Airbrake sold at 146, a decline of ¾ from the last previous sale.

It is said that the earnings of Pittsburgh Railways for June increased $2,000 over the same month last year, and that the earnings for July will likely show an increase of $10,000.

Independent Brewing preferred was firmer, rallying to 40¾ sales and bid at the close. Pittsburgh Brewing common closed a fraction lower. Bonds were firm in the bid price, but there were no sales.

"Now that the worst is known on the Coal stocks, I look for the general market to do better," was the comment of a member of the exchange after the close of the market yesterday. The local steel stocks were extremely dull, but closed steady.

The Pittsburgh Dry Goods Company has just completed a successful half year's business. It has the record of directors have declared a semi-annual dividend out of the earnings of the past six months of 3 per cent on the common stock and 3½ per cent on the preferred stock, payable August 1. In addition to this the surplus has been still further increased.

The directors of the International Steam Pump Company have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable August 1.

The American Graphophone Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on the preferred stock, payable August 15 to stock of record August 1. This is the first consecutive dividend this company has declared on this class of stock.

The American Shipbuilding Company of Cleveland, O., has declared a dividend of 4 per cent on the common stock.

The Illinois Central directors declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent and an extra dividend of ½ per cent, the same as six months ago.

The Boston and Montana Copper Company has declared the usual quarterly dividend of $10 a share.

Directors of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation have declared an initial dividend of 1¾ per cent quarterly on the $15,000,000 preferred stock.

Curb sales were reported yesterday of 500 shares of Golden Anchor at 25, and the stock was quoted at 20 bid, 21 asked. Allegheny Traction was offered at 50. Window Glass Machine common was quoted at 8 bid, 10 asked, and the preferred at 24 bid, 26 asked. Fayette County Gas was quoted at 92 bid, and Union Natural Gas at 107 bid, 108 asked.

On the exchange Duquesne club bonds were quoted at 100 and interest bid.

The 1,965 stockholders of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company have subscribed to $8,630,600 new common stock offered to them at par. The remaining 24,730,200 to which the stockholders had the right to subscribe to the extent of 29 of their holdings was allowed to remain in the company's treasury. Thus the stockholders took less than 35 per cent of the total amount offered them. The company received $2,582,700 cash for the stock taken, however, so that this amount is now available for improvements.

Gross earnings of Missouri Pacific for the second week in July increased $34,000.

Gross earnings of Southern Railway for the second week in July increased $66,709.

"It is generally supposed that the large owners of railway and other securities, stocks and bonds desire a higher range of values and a market on which a portion of their holdings can be distributed, and as general conditions are favorable to a bull campaign in stocks, an active and better market is looked for."—Philadelphia News Bureau.

The report of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company for the year ended June 30, 1905, shows a surplus over interest, dividends, etc., of $966,221, against $1,430,863 last year and $1,020 two years ago.

Gross earnings of the Wabash for the second week in July decreased $23,429.

Gross earnings of Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh for the second week in July increased $21,332.

Gross earnings of Canadian Pacific for the second week in July increased $67,000.

For the first half of 1905 there has been a depreciation of more than $105,000,000 in the value of Kaffir shares quoted in the London market. In the face of this decline the output of gold has increased from 262,000 ounces in December to 412,000 ounces in June, or an increase in the value of the output of nearly $6,000,000. The gold now being mined is of a lower quality and operating expenses are therefore heavier than they were before the Boer war. The amount of dividends paid for the first half of this year approximate very closely to the sum paid for the corresponding period of 1904. The Johannesburg correspondent of the London Financial Times points out that this is properly regarded as unsatisfactory in view of an increase of 40 per cent in the tonnage milled and 30 per cent in the gold output.

H. B. Beatty, president of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, and John S. Craig, treasurer of the Rider-Conlon Manufacturing Company, have been elected directors in the German National bank of Pittsburgh. These additions strengthen the already strong board of the bank.

All the plants of the American Can Company are in operation. The company is having an exceptionally good business as a result of a good crops. There have been no changes in tin plate prices since spring, and none is contemplated in the near future.

It is reported that the United States Steel Corporation is now beginning to receive large orders for material from railroad companies which have made up their minds that crops are assured and that they can safely contract ahead for requirements for next year.

The first belief that the dividend on Union Pacific is to be increased from 4 to 5 per cent rate at today's meeting of the directors has apparently lost its efficiency. It was reported that there was to be a sale of Union Pacific's Northern Securities assets. It will be remembered that these assets resolve themselves finally into quarterly holdings of Northern Pacific and Great Northern, preferred in place of the majority and control of Northern Securities, which Union Pacific put into the original merger. Union Pacific's desire to dispose of those assets has therefore been assumed and the settlement of prices yesterday was pointed to as indicating advantageous terms for all concerned. The whole matter remains in the realm of conjecture without a word of official information for guidance.

Rumor was busy with an alleged meeting of the Erie directors to declare a dividend on the 2d preferred stock, but these were unsubstantiated.

The poor annual showing of the International Mercantile Marine Company was not without some effect in the stock market, although its securities are not dealt on the stock exchanges to any extent. Another way the information of dividends on Bethlehem Steel exerted a touch of sentimental benefit to the iron and steel group.

The recent more active demand for money on time loans was perceptibly relaxed in New York yesterday, and the prices of loan bills in the exchange market showed a tendency so that the time for time money became easy. Rates for call loans were also inclined to yield.

Standard Investment Bonds.

The Colonial Trust Company, No. 317 Fourth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., has for sale a variety of bonds yielding the purchaser from 3½ to 6 per cent, which it recommends as desirable investments. Inquire of Alexander C. Thompson, manager bond department.

HEAVY BUYING IN IRON MARKET

Raw Material and Steel Are in Active Demand and the Future is Very Bright.

Iron and steel men are agreed that the market is on the threshold of a huge buying movement that will not only carry the business of this year to a point similar to that reached in 1902, but which indicates a high wave of prosperity for next year.

With the possible exception of pipe and tubes, there is an active and urgent buying demand for general lines from raw material to finished products. Billets, which were sagging last week, are very scarce, with demand very heavy at minimum prices of $22 to $23. A Chicago buyer was in the market yesterday for 5,000 tons of billets and could not place his order. Jones & Laughlin report not only heavy and active buying demand in all lines, but state they are turning away more business than they are putting on the books.

Pig iron, like the balance of the market, is in eager demand at current prices, while southern is selling fast at prices 50 cents higher than last week. Bars and plates are enjoying an active selling movement, while structural iron and rails, especially heavy rails, cannot be bought for delivery within three months. Coke is also enjoying a more liberal demand than a week ago, and standing cars are being sent out rapidly.

It is reported that one of the heaviest and most conservative pig iron buyers who rarely errs, placed his order yesterday for iron to carry him through the balance of the year, and it is generally conceded that the move was a wise one.

The impression is that the buying movement was stimulated by the railroads, who are conceded to represent 50 per cent of the national demand on the iron and steel market. Railroads were not in the market last month, holding back their orders for current and future needs in order to make a good showing in the annual and semi-annual statements which were sent out July 1. Not only have these June orders come in within the last 10 days, but orders for present and future needs have accompanied them. As a result, some mills are sold a year ahead on heavy rails and kindred products.

The disposition among iron and steel men is not to raise prices and thereby stem what promises to be the forerunner of a high wave of prosperity. Current prices with a very few exceptions, are conceded to be fair, and it is believed that with slight variance they will be maintained for some time.

The Hardware Market.

Conditions continue much the same as at our last report, a very good volume of business in hardware and general lines coming in right along. The demand for season goods caused by the excessive hot weather is clearing up stocks in the hands of both jobbers and retailers that will put season goods business for next spring and summer in fine shape as far as old or carried over stocks are concerned. The trade is demanding, in addition to season goods supplies, quantities of goods in builders' hardware, in tools of all kinds, in house furnishing goods and in heavy hardware, including a very good demand for nails and wire. The demand for bicycle and automobile supplies keeps up remarkably well, and naturally so, as bicycle riding and automobiling sports were never so good, taken as an aggregate. Prices in general lines are very firm, there being no recent changes noted. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 30 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 and 10 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 a dozen; Great Western files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base, No. 28, $4 15 the 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, the ton, $27 00; window glass, first two brackets, 90 and 10 per cent off list of October 1, 1904; above second bracket and all double, 90 per cent off for immediate acceptance only; Albion sewing machines, 25 per cent discount; blue and white enamel ware, 60 and 10 per cent discount; Albion hot plates, 40 per cent discount; hay forks, 60 per cent discount.

BUYING MOVEMENT HAS APPEARED UNEXPECTEDLY

Sellers of Pig Iron Are Greatly Encouraged at Prospect—Considerable Tonnage Has Been Placed.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Iron Age tomorrow will say of the iron and steel trades: The long delayed buying movement in pig iron has come rather unexpectedly, and while it has not developed in any large proportions, it has greatly encouraged sellers. Some of the leading consuming interests, and notably the cast iron pipe consolidation, started the buying. This interest took about 25,000 tons of southern No. 2 on the gulf basis and below $11, Birmingham. Other smelters followed, and in the aggregate a considerable tonnage was placed in all the principal distributing markets.

In the east some round lots of basic pig were taken by steel works aggregating about 15,000 tons. In the Pittsburgh districts the mills bought quite a quantity of forge grades. Orders from the general foundry trade have been in fair volume and have been well distributed. Much of the business was done at low price—at $11 and under, Birmingham; but now $11 35 for early delivery has become scarce and the leading makers ask $11 50 and upward for delivery during the balance of the year.

From Cleveland comes the report that a buying pool has been formed in that important foundry center among buyers of pig iron.

The business in the heavy lines, steel rails, plates and shapes, continues very satisfactory. In the lighter lines there is a notable movement in the steel bar trade and a better feeling prevails in sheets.

From Chicago comes the report of sales of malleable pig aggregating about 20,000 tons, of sales of basic pig to a local plant of 10,000 tons and of purchases by a St. Louis car builder of about 10,000 tons of foundry iron.

SUGAR MARKET UPSET BY HEAVY REDUCTIONS

Dealers Will Not Attempt to Predict Where the Bottom Will Be Reached in Price.

With sugar off another 10 points, the market in that line is decidedly upset. This is the lowest figure it has reached in almost two years. Buyers are afraid of it, although it looks like a bargain at the price. Where it is going to end none of the dealers can say. The crop of beet sugar this year will be an enormous one, while that of raw will be unusually large. Foreign sugars are plentiful and could still be got into this market at a small margin of profit. Under these conditions there can be little change for a settlement of the sugar question for some time.

Flour is holding its own, although some shading is being done to induce buyers to take hold. They are all wary of it and buy only what they must have. All other lines in the grocery trade are firm. Canned goods sales have fallen off owing to the arrival of fresh fruits.

Fruits and produce are enjoying heavy sales. There were no changes in quotations yesterday, but a good trade was maintained all day.

HAY AND GRAIN

Receipts.

Receipts of hay and grain yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 18 cars hay, 37½ cars oats, 2½ cars corn, 3 cars feed, 2 cars straw. Baltimore & Ohio, 2 cars oats. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 1 car oats.

There was a good business transacted yesterday in the grain exchange, but nothing extraordinary. Prices are firm and no changes in quotations were offered. The condition of the market is about the same as it has been all week.

The market for oats was strong on general buying, brought out partly by the bulge in wheat. Another influence that tended to strengthen the market was wet weather in Iowa. September opened unchanged to a shade lower at 32½@32¾c, to which advanced to 33c and closed at 33@33¼c. Local receipts were 54 cars.

Provisions were steady, influenced mainly by the strength of wheat. An advance of 10c in the price of live hogs helped to check profit-taking, which was in evidence at various times during the day. At the close September pork was unchanged at $15 75. Lard was off 2½c at $7 92½@7 95. Ribs were a shade higher at $7 30@7 45.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 81 cars; corn, 250 cars; oats, 91 cars; hogs, 24,000 head.

ROADS TO HAVE AGENCIES HERE

Detroit and Salt Lake Lines Will Likely Send Representatives. Delano in the East.

WIDENING THE B. & O. TUNNEL

Two new systems of railroads will likely establish freight and passenger agencies in this city. These are the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad and the newly consolidated Detroit, Ironton & Toledo and Ann Arbor railroads. The operating operations of the latter roads, effective last Monday, were merged, as were also the traffic departments and the headquarters of the combined company, which will probably be known under the name of the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton, for the immediate future, at least, have been established at Toledo. The San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad, which is the new line built by Senator Clark from Salt Lake city to Los Angeles, has just opened an office in the Railway Exchange at 26 Broadway, New York. This will be the eastern headquarters for the freight and passenger business, and will be in full charge of M. de Trabant, under the title of general agent. While this territory will cover Pittsburgh, it is likely this important center will also be given a representative, or possibly two, for the freight and passenger departments. The same view will probably be taken by the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton officials, and the road will be represented either by one or two men here.

One of the important matters in connection with the amalgamated Detroit road is the election of Frank A. Durban of Zanesville, O., as president, succeeding George M. Cumming, resigned. Mr. Durban is general counsel for the Baltimore & Ohio lines west of the Ohio river and is also solicitor for the Cincinnati & Muskingum Valley road of the Pennsylvania lines west. D. G. Lamprey, who was succeeded as general manager of the Erie Despatch by Charles W. Clarke, formerly general agent of the Erie railroad in Pittsburgh, has been chosen general traffic manager of the combined Detroit-Ann Arbor system, and C. J. Kirby, former general passenger agent of the Ann Arbor, is general passenger and ticket agent of the new system. It is understood that W. H. Bennett will be general freight agent, and H. C. Bell, assistant general freight agent. R. W. Meacham has been appointed commercial agent at Detroit. R. K. Smith is the general manager. Joseph Ramsey, Jr., is still president of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company.

"Pike" Line May Be Double-Tracked.

Work which will be started within a few days on the Wheeling and Pittsburgh branch of the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio, which is commonly known as the "Pike," has the appearance of meaning that the officers of the Baltimore & Ohio intend to double-track the line. M. J. Corrigan, tunnel inspector, will start a force of men at work in a few days on widening and relining tunnel No. 2, just east of Claysville. This is the only tunnel on the "Pike" that remains a single-track roadway. It is lined with timber, but this will give place to brick lining and a tunnel bore sufficiently large to allow two tracks. The tunnel is about 1,700 feet long. It was learned from official sources yesterday that while the tunnel will be widened for the two-track roadway, the double-tracking of the line is not on the program for this year, although it will likely be done next year. The "Pike" now has about eight miles of double-track road from Wheeling Junction to Bruceton. It is likely that when the line is double-tracked it will also be practically rebuilt, so as to do away with the grades.

Delano Called to New York.

F. A. Delano, first vice president of the Wabash railroad and president of the Wabash lines east of Toledo, who was expected in Pittsburgh last evening, was unexpectedly called to New York from Toledo Tuesday evening for an important meeting. B. A. Worthington, vice president of the lines east of Toledo, was also called to the conference. The nature of the meeting could not be learned from the local offices yesterday. It was said that Messrs. Delano and Worthington will likely be here in a day or two. After a trip of inspection over the lines, Mr. Delano left Toledo for Pittsburgh for a stay of several days to confer and act upon local matters of improvement. The old report of President Delano bringing more western railroad men to the Pittsburgh lines is revived, but nothing is known locally of any prospective changes.

Another Freight Station.

A contract was awarded to L. H. Poole of Washington, Pa., yesterday by the engineering department of the Pennsylvania railroad for the construction of a freight station at Shadyside, Pittsburgh. The structure will be of brick, with stone trimmings. It will cost about $8,000. So steadily has the Pennsylvania system been making improvements in this district in the past few years that the general public is little aware of the vast improvements for handling the immense tonnage. Along with the new terminal lines, which aggregate almost 100 miles through connections, the Union station has been built, work of construction is progressing on new passenger stations at East Liberty and Allegheny, and on the new Duquesne freight warehouse at the Point, and two smaller freight houses are to be built, one in Allegheny, as exclusively outlined in The Gazette yesterday, and the other at Shadyside. When this work is completed the Pennsylvania system will have spent almost $25,000,000 for improvements in the immediate Pittsburgh district.

The Pennsylvania will enlarge its facilities at Broad street station, Philadelphia, by extending the trainshed and adding more tracks. This will be accomplished by using the space formerly occupied by the Adams Express Company, which is having elaborate quarters built in Market street, between Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets, Philadelphia.

New Traffic Manager an Able Man.

The new traffic manager of the Wabash system, David O. Ives, whose appointment to this position was announced from Omaha on Tuesday, has had a thorough training in traffic matters and is considered one of the most able and aggressive officials of the west. He has held official positions on the Burlington lines west of the Missouri river since 1888, when, on April 1, he was appointed assistant general freight agent. From December, 1892, to January 1, 1898, he was general passenger and ticket agent of the same lines. From the latter date until his appointment to the traffic managership of the Wabash railroad he has been general freight agent of the western Burlington lines.

High School to Train Apprentices.

A special course of instruction has been adopted by the board of education of Altoona for the high school there, the especial purpose of which is to educate boys who want to become mechanics in lines of work that will be open for taking apprenticeships in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona. The plan has been indorsed by the railroad management, some of the officials having assisted in outlining the curriculum.

Union Station Office Outing.

Throwing aside all cares for the day, the army of employes of the Pennsylvania lines at the Union station will forget pen and typewriter and figures and will enjoy themselves in the tenth annual outing of the General Office Employes' Outing association and the Inter Union line at Rock Point park on Saturday, July 22. It is probable that three or four special trains will be provided to carry the employes and their friends. There will be a baseball game, of course, for there are no more enthusiastic rooters and amateur players about Pittsburgh. There will be lighter sports, too, including quoit contests, a 100-yard dash, a girl's race, an open boys' race, etc. L. H. Lenz is chairman of the sports committee. Charles C. Miller is chairman of the association and W. F. Wolfe is secretary.

Railroad Notes.

Isaac Stanton, assistant to the assistant yardmaster at the Union station, and Conductor J. M. Sarver have returned from a sojourn at Buffalo.

W. J. Fleming, special agent of the Pennsylvania lines passenger department, is at Erie looking after the special train arrangements for the returning troops.

The Pennsylvania lines have opened a new freight yard at Columbus.

S. C. Long, superintendent of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania, is expected at his office today after a three-week lake trip with his family.

Charles Watts, general superintendent of passenger transportation of the Pennsylvania lines west, accompanied by his family, left last night for a brief jaunt to North Carolina.

E. W. McCord, station passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines, is on the sick list, having been overcome by the hot weather.

W. D. Holliday, traffic manager of the Wabash here, accidentally stepped from a three-foot platform at the freight station yesterday, thinking it was merely a short step down. His whole weight landed on his left arm and shoulder, causing a severe sprain.

Assistant Trainmaster Ansell of the Baltimore & Ohio, at New Castle Junction, was in the city.

J. J. Koch, division freight agent of the Pennsylvania lines, and J. B. Cochran, general agent of the Erie, accompanied by their families, are spending their vacations in the Canadian lake region.

The earnings of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh for the second week of July increased $21,215 as compared with the same period last year.

George W. Boyd, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania, has returned to Philadelphia from a jaunt to Yellowstone National park.

It is expected that Judge Wheaton of Luzerne county will be chosen general solicitor for the Lehigh Valley to succeed H. S. Drinker, who resigned to become president of Lehigh university.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS IS ALL; MOORE SAYS LET IT GO

Investigation Shows Peculiar Method of Police Captain Frederick on the South Side.

The police trial board yesterday investigated the charges made against Capt. J. N. Frederick, who resigned from the service, for the purpose of ascertaining if any of his subordinate officers were implicated with him. The desk sergeants and other officers in charge of the South Side district were free from any suspicion of complicity. Supt. Wallace went to Michigan on his vacation and was not at the hearing.

Joseph Hogle, a sub-officer of the South Thirteenth street station house, testified that on July 3, 5 and 6 Capt. Frederick detailed him to No. 24 beat in West End. After receiving his instructions Capt. Frederick met him outside the station house and sent him to go special duty at a pool room at South Nineteenth and Carson street. On July 3 and 10 Frederick detailed him to No. 24 beat and afterward detailed him to do special duty at a merry-go-round at South Twenty-second and Carson street. Hogle testified Frederick instructed him to collect $2 each time and return it to him, the police captain, which he did.

The city payrolls show Hogle to have been detailed to beat No. 24 on these dates and Hogle was paid by the city. Frederick withheld the money collected from the pool room and the merry-go-round.

Sergeant William McShane testified that he knew nothing of Capt. Frederick's relations with the proprietors of these places. He heard Frederick detail Hogle to beat No. 24, but had no knowledge of Frederick's subsequent orders to Hogle.

After the hearing Director Moore said he deplored the grafting methods of Frederick, but as he had collected only $15, he thought it better to drop the matter.

The new occupant of the ducal throne proceeded to the castle of Friedenstein where he met his mother, the duchess of Albany. The oath of installation was taken in the throne room.

In the Oil fields

All days are alike in the lower southwest fields. There are the usual number of completions reported, but they are all small or dry and located inside of the defined limits of the old fields. Development work has reached that point that there is scarcely hope for the discovery of anything better than congested pools, and they are few and far between.

North of Downs station, Marion county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed and shot its No. 5 on the J. B. Eagan farm in the Gordon and the hole has filled up 800 feet with fluid. It will make a light pumper. In the Smithfield district, the South Penn has recovered the tools lost in its No. 3 on the Samuel Cummings farm and is now drilling at 41 feet in the Big Injun. A light gas pressure, but no oil, has been encountered. There is still a chance for a pay with deeper drilling.

After a long and tedious fishing job, T. Miller & Co. have at last cleared the hole at its test on the Levi Shuman farm, located on Prices fork, Grant district, Wetzel county. They have drilled into the top of the Gordon and have a light show of oil. The Kanawha Oil Company has drilled its No. 108 on the John Mills tract through the Big Injun, and is now drilling to the Gordon. Unless something better is found in the lower formation it will be tested in the Big Injun and will make a light pumper. In the Yellow Creek district, Calhoun county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 11 on the H. I. Jackson farm through the Berea grit and has a show for a 20-barrel producer.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 3 on the I. A. Carpenter farm through the Gordon, and the hole has filled up 700 feet with fluid. It will be given a shot. The same company has drilled its test on the Clyde Bailey farm through the stray and has found no oil or gas. The same company's test on the A. E. Davis farm has been drilled five feet into the stray and has no oil or gas. Near Petroleum, Grant district, Ritchie county, Dennis O'Brien has drilled his No. 38 on the Wood County Petroleum tract through the Berea grit, and has a light pumper. On Gillespie run, in the same district, Hennig & Ewing have drilled their test on the Loomis-McGregor farm through the Big Injun and found that formation barren. It will make a small pumper from the salt sand.

In the Rays Run district, on the Ohio side in Monroe county, Tibbens & Withington have drilled their test on the F. Brown through the Big Injun, and have a show for a five-barrel pumper. Gaffner & Co. are testing their venture on the Richardson heirs' farm. While drilling through the stray between the salt and Maxon sands a good showing of oil was developed and they decided to make a test before drilling deeper. The stray sand has not been regarded a producing formation in that locality, and there is some doubt as to what the well will produce when put to pumping. It is estimated to be good for from five to 10 barrels a day. Development work in this district is being pushed ahead to the Ohio river, and it is thought that good wells can be found all along the intervening line of territory in that direction. The territory is now and has been under lease for some time. Tibbens & Withington are among the largest holders.

In the Berea grit development, near Newport, in the same county, the Acadia Oil Company has drilled its test on the Gordon heirs' farm through the Berea grit, and will not have better than a five-barrel pumper. In the same district Blume & Buckley have completed a second test on the M. Thomas farm and have a duster in the Berea grit. East of Marietta, the Clark Oil Company has completed and tested its well on the McBride farm, and will not have better than a three-barrel pumper. When first drilled into the sand this test was estimated to be a much better producer.

In the Wolf creek, Washington county, near the Morgan county line, E. D. Crawford has completed his No. 45 on the John Lightner farm, and has a show for a light pumper. In the same district, the Tecumseh Oil and Gas Company's Nos. 17 and 18 on the Ruth A. Chapman farm are producing 150 barrels a day. Southeast of Jerusalem, Monroe county, the Southern Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the W. E. Moore farm through the Big Lime and has a five-barrel pumper. It was the first well drilled by the Southern company, early in the year, that started at better than 200 barrels a day and created the impression that a new Big Lime pool had been discovered. Several good producers were found and then light pumper and dusters followed.

West of the Bakerstown tunnel, Allegheny county, the Crystal Farm Oil Company has given its test on the Crystal farm a shot in the fourth sand, but it failed to respond with anything but an increase in the flow of gas. When drilled in last week this well was credited with a production of 12 barrels an hour, but it declined very rapidly, and is practically a failure as an oil producer. The good showing made when first drilled in caused the starting of several wells in that locality and number of locations were made. As the Crystal farm well has failed to make good, they probably will be abandoned.

Just fair warning, you understand, not to pass by these saving offerings.
